SUPERNATURAL 7 p.m. on KDAF

Dean (Jensen Ackles) falls victim to a pair of sister witches, Jamie and Jennie Plum (guest stars Jordan Clair Robbins, Elise Gatien), who manage to steal a book of formidable spells from the Winchesters in the new episode "Various & Sundry Villains." When the brothers go after the women, Dean and Sam (Jared Padalecki) get help from a totally unexpected source: Rowena (guest star Ruth Connell), who has returned from the dead. Amanda Tapping ("Sanctuary") directed this episode.

A.P. BIO 8:31 p.m. on KXAS

Seth Meyers is one of the creators and executive producers of this new sitcom, which gets a sneak preview tonight before beginning its regular weekly run next next month. Glenn Howerton ("It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia") stars as disgraced Harvard philosopher Jack Griffin, who misses out on a dream job and is forced to return to his hometown to work at his old high school as a teacher of Advanced Placement Biology (hence the series title). Patton Oswalt plays his beleaguered principal.

CRAZY EX-GIRLFRIEND 7 p.m. on KDAF

Continuing what looks like an increasingly serious spiral, Rebecca (Rachel Bloom) navigates some dramatic changes in her professional life in a new episode called "Oh Nathaniel, It's On!," a title that suggests on-again, off-again beau Nathaniel (Scott Michael Foster) may be in for some turbulence as well. Meanwhile, Heather (Vella Lovell) gets a surprising new opportunity. Danny Lynn Champlin, Pete Gardner, David Hull and Vincent Rodriguez III also star.

MOSAIC

7 p.m., 2:25 a.m. on HBO

The final night of this limited series opens with "The Reckoning," which finds Nate (Devin Ratray) suspecting that the wrong man is in prison, but he faces huge obstacles before he can get the case reopened. As evidence against him continues to mount, an increasingly paranoid Joel (Garrett Hedlund) weighs his options. Then, in the finale, Petra (Jennifer Ferrin) turns up the heat on J.C. (Paul Reubens), Olivia's old confidante, as well as Alan and Tom (Beau Bridges, Michael Cerveris).

HIGH MAINTENANCE 10 p.m., 12 a.m. on HBO

The new episode "Fagin" guest stars Marcia DeBonis and Ray Anthony Thomas as a couple visiting their daughter (guest star Amanda Debraux) in Bushwick. During their stay, they freely embrace their unfamiliar urban surroundings while dealing with a less-than-perfect rental property that comes with an undesirable roommate. Elsewhere, The Guy (Ben Sinclair) makes a delivery to an all-female political gathering hosted by Brenna and Molly (Brenna Palughi, Molly Knefel), where things take a dramatic turn very quickly.

ANIMALS WITH CAMERAS, A NATURE MINISERIES

7 p.m. on KERA

"Nature" regularly is home to stunning documentaries that train cameras on various wild creatures, but this new threepart miniseries flips the script - or camera lens, in this case — to present life in the wild from a critter's eye view, via custom-built cameras worn by the animals themselves. Among the highlights in the miniseries premiere, newborn Kalahari meerkats are viewed below ground for the first time, and an orphaned chimpanzee makes his way through the the treetops above Cameroon.

THE MAGICIANS 8 p.m. on SYFY

In a new episode called "Be the Penny," Eliot (Hale Appleman) finds himself the quarry in a high-stakes hunt, while Quentin and Julia (Jason Ralph, Stella Maeve) stumble across a powerful secret tied to the history of Brakebills University that could have major implications. Elsewhere, Penny (Arjun Gupta) struggles to adjust to his new circumstances. Olivia Taylor Dudley, Jade Tailor and Summer Blshil also star.

WE'LL MEET AGAIN 7 p.m. on KERA

The episode title pretty much says it all in the new "Rescued From Mount St. Helens." which finds host Ann Curry presenting reunions of people whose lives intersected during that deadly 1980 eruption. Among them are Mindy, who is seeking the family of a scientist who saved her life, and Sue, who is hoping to meet once again the helicopter pilot who virtually snatched her out of the jaws of almost certain death.

STATE OF THE UNION 2018 8 p.m. on KDFW, KXAS, WFAA, KTVT, KÉRA

Most of the broadcast and all the major cable news networks present coverage of President Donald Trump's annual address to a joint session of Congress, in which he'll offer his assessment of what's currently working in the United States and what he thinks needs improvement. The president likely will include mention of our country's infrastructure, a recurring topic in recent weeks for him. The Democratic Party's response immediately follows on most of these channels.

BELLEVUE 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12 a.m. on WGNA

In the new episode "He's Back," as Annie (Anna Paquin) continues her search for Jesse Sweetland, she and the detectives consider Annie's theory and wind up with their first real lead. Annie confides to Peter (Shawn Doyle) that her mystery Riddler has returned, and he firmly urges her to stay away from that guy until Peter finds him. Elsewhere, Virginia (Sharon Taylor) tracks down Jesse's boyfriend, Danny Debessage (Cameron Roberts), who provides her with a piece of vital information.

THE NUMBER ON GREAT-GRANDPA'S ARM

5 p.m. on HBO

Premiering in conjunction with International Holocaust Remembrance Day, Amy Schatz's short family-friendly documentary shares lessons of the Hiolocaust through a conversation between 10-year-old Elliott and his beloved 80-year-old grandfather, Jack, a survivor of Auschwitz. The talk, which starts after Elliott asks about a number tattooed on the old man's arm, comes to life via documentary and archival footage and stills, as well as rotoscope animation by acclaimed artist Jeff

FAITH UNDER FIRE: THE ANTOINETTE TUFF STORY

7 p.m., 10:02 p.m., 12 a.m. on

Multiple Grammy Award winner Toni Braxton shows off her acting chops in the title role of this new 2018 biopic that celebrates the heroism of an Atlanta single mom whose calm stoicism in the face of an unbalanced and heavily armed gunman saved the lives of students at her suburban elementary school. Drawing on her faith to stave off panic, bookkeeper Antoinette Tuff connected with the troubled young man and convinced him to surrender. Trevor Morgan, Yaya DaCosta and Malik Yoba also star.

FALLING WATER 9 p.m., 12:01 a.m. on USA

In a new episode called "Dröm," Taka (Will Yun Lee) goes on the trail of the Shadowman (Dru Viergever), determined to find where this entity appears in the real world. Elsewhere, Tess and Burton (Lizzie Brochere, David Ajala) scour the dreamworld, searching for a missing dreamer. Woody (Kai Lennox) sells out the major to Taylor Bennett, and Bill Boerg (Zak Orth) returns.

VALOR 8 p.m. on KDAF

One of several military dramas to premiere this season, this one closes out Season 1 with "Costs of War," which finds Nora (Christina Ochoa) seriously considering confessing, no matter what consequences may follow. Meanwhile, Ian (Charlie Barnett) is caught completely off guard by an ugly truth.

THE ALIENIST

8 p.m., 9 p.m., 3 a.m. on TNT

In the new episode "A Fruitful Partnership," the investigation heats up as Sara (Dakota Fanning) uncovers what could be a significant clue and Kreizler (Daniel Bruhl) tries to connect the evidence the serial killer left behind. Although tensions are rising in the New York Police Department, Kreizler treats Sara, John Moore, Marcus and Lucius (Luke Evans, Douglas Smith, Matthew Shear) to dinner at Delmonico's, where he announces they're all going to be working as a team to catch this killer.

THE BRAVE 9 p.m. on KXAS

There are just four weeks left before Dalton (Mike Vogel) and his team complete their deployment, yet they still find themselves racing the clock for a high-stakes mission in the Season 1 finale "Close to Home: Part 2." As they find out more about Hoffman (guest star James Tupper), Patricia (Anne Heche) and the rest of the group try to save innocent lives using his intel, but that information comes at a cost.

THE 60TH ANNUAL GRAMMY AWARDS 6:30 p.m. on KTVT

For the first time since 2003, this year's ceremony honoring the best artists, recordings and compositions of the year does so in a New York state of mind, as the show is held someplace other than its longtime home at the Staples Center in Los Angeles. From Madison Square Garden in New York, CBS late-night host James Corden returns to host for the second consecutive year. Reflecting the shift in venue, the show includes a Broadway tribute by Tony Award winners Patti LuPone and Ben Platt.

SHAMELESS 8 p.m., 11 p.m., 1 a.m. on SHOW

In "Sleepwalking," the Season 8 finale, Fiona (Emmy Rossum) has to fall back on years of Gallagher cunning if she's going to get that homeless family to leave her apartment and drop their lawsuit. Meanwhile, Ian (Cameron Monaghan) and some of his followers lay low after a literally explosive incident, and Lip (Jeremy Allen White) must confront a painful decision to secure the kind of life he really wants. William H. Macy also stars.

DIVORCE

9 p.m., 10 p.m., 11 p.m. on HBO

Drawing inspiration from helping her new friend Andrew (guest star Steven Pasquale), Frances (Sarah Jessica Parker) embarks on a quest to track down an unknown painter in the new episode "Worth It." Diane (Molly Shannon) uses her work at the gallery to escape worrying about her issues with Nick (Tracy Letts). Robert (Thomas Haden Church) feels an immediate electricity with a beautiful real-estate agent (guest star Becki Newton, "Ugly Betty") to whom he is showing his house.

Rosenthal takes it around the world on Netflix's 'Somebody Feed Phil'

The show has a new title and a new platform but the content of what is now called "Somebody Feed Phil" is the same.

Currently streaming on Netflix after its season on PBS, the hourlong series formerly known as "I'll Have What Phil's Having" takes its host, Phil Rosenthal – best known as the creator/ writer/executive producer of the long-running sitcom "Everybody Loves Raymond" - to worldwide locations such as Bangkok, Saigon, Lisbon, New Orleans, Mexico City and Tel Aviv, to check out the local scene, including the people, the landscape, the culture and, most importantly, the cuisine.

"These are touristy spots that I've started with," Rosenthal explains, "and they're touristy for a reason – because they're wonderful. And as the show continues, just like in life if vou're

Like We Do.

a traveler, you get a little bit further and further afield. You go to places that maybe weren't the first places you think of for a vacation. I went to Vietnam on this one and that was a little bit out of my comfort zone in terms of thinking, 'Where would I go? Where would I tell people to go on a vacation?' But everyone was telling me Vietnam's their favorite place they've ever

Probably the most exotic meal Rosenthal had in this set of episodes was the crab omelet he dined on in a higher-end restaurant in Bangkok, which he says ran about $30 (and would cost around $90 in the states) but could feed two people. If you wanted to eat on the cheap, he says, the seaside Thai capital offered plenty of options in the neighborhood of $1 or $2.

> "There's these canals throughout and there's these beautiful floating markets that are so much fun ...," Rosenthal says. "There's someone in a boat making pad thai noodles and they're the best you've ever had – and vou eat them in the boat. I had so much fun. I mean, imagine a family trip – it couldn't get better than that. Disney has nothing on this."

What book are you currently reading?

"Father Greg Boyle, his new book. ... I think it's called 'Tattoos on the Heart.'"

What did you have for dinner last night?

"I went to a wonderful L.A. restaurant called Baroo and it's run by Korean Americans who do a very eclectic menu of fermented foods. They specialize in fermented foods and .. I'm telling you this is some of the most delicious and innovative food in the world. I take great chefs to this place and they are blown away."

What is your next project?

"Oh, I have lots of ideas. I have an idea for a podcast I want to do with my friend David Wilde. ... I want to do a movie, a show where I interview my friends about how they made their movies. ... I have sitcom ideas. I have a book I want to write. I have a bunch of things I want to do. But right now, this is the number one priority, is this show.'
