7 p.m. on FREE

A police investigation seems to be leading detectives straight to Ryn (Eline Powell) in the new episode "Interview With a Mermaid." Meanwhile, Xander and Calvin's (lan Verdun, Curtis Lum) search for the missing Chris (Chad Rook) starts to heat up when they finally manage to locate the nurse who works at the military bunker.

SCANDAL 9 p.m. on WFAA

It's sure to be a sad night for Gladiators as this ever-surprising drama series from creator-producer Shonda Rhimes reaches the end of its seven-season run with "Over a Cliff." What the future holds for Olivia Pope (Kerry Washington) is likely to be indicated — and if the show holds true to form, it won't necessarily be what anyone expects. Co-stars Tony Goldwyn, Bellamy Young, Darby Stanchfield, Jeff Perry, Katie Lowes, Joshua Malina, Scott Foley, Joe Morton and Guillermo Diaz also wrap up their roles.

TRUCK NIGHT IN AMERICA

9:03 p.m., 1:06 a.m. on HIST

Five drivers put their personal rive drivers put their personal trucks to the test in the new episode "In the Hole." One driver gets more than his pride injured when his truck is broken in half during the first challenge. Later, the drivers are temporarily blinded by dense smoke while trying to weave through trees in the Fire Escape challenge, before they undertake a battle of skill vs. size in the Green Hell finale.

April 13, 2018 tonight' PICK

JANE THE VIRGIN 8 p.m. on KDAF

Both written and directed by Micah Schraft, the new "Chapter Eighty" puts plenty of stress on Jane and Rafael (Gina Rodriguez, Justin Baldoni). Not only do they face financial pressure, they're sharply divided over Alba's (Ivonne Coll) treatment of Mateo. Xo's (Andrea Navedo) progress may be thwarted by her dealings with Rogelio (Jaime Camil), who might get help in dealing with River (guest star Brooke Shields). Petra (Yael Grobglas) keeps digging for the information she wants. Rosario Dawson guest stars.

THE GRAHAM NORTON SHOW 9 p.m. on BBCA

The irreverent Irish comic opens the 23rd season of his award-winning talk show, in which he gets his guests to let down their guard. Expected on the couch for the season premiere are actress Emily Blunt and her husband, John Krasinski, who co-star in the new horror movie "A Quiet Place," which he also wrote and directed. Also: Aussie pop star Kylie Minogue chats and performs her new single "Stop Me from Falling" from the album "Golden."

RELLIK 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12:35

9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12:35 a.m. on CINE

The title — which is "killer" spelled backward — reflects the unusual narrative structure of this six-part murder mystery, in which the story unfolds in reverse order, starting with the apprehension and death of a presumed serial killer in tonight's premiere. Richard Dormer ("Game of Thrones") stars as UK police detective Gabriel Markham, who is left both physically and emotionally scarred after an acid attack by the killer. Jodi Balfour ("The Crown"), Paterson Joseph ("The Leftovers") and Ray Stevenson ("Black Sails") also star.

EMPIRE 7 p.m. on KDFW

Cookie (Taraji P. Henson) resists Lucious' (Terrence Howard) efforts to get her to slow down in the new episode "Of Hardiness Is Mother," especially given her concern about a longtime friend. Tiana (Serayah) has a strong reaction to her sudden success. Jamal (Jussie Smollett) wants to revise his image. Hakeem (Bryshere "Yazz" Gray) positions himself as a mentor. Trai Byers and Gabourey Sidibe also star.

THE ORIGINALS 8 p.m. on KDAF

This spinoff of "The Vampire Diaries" begins its fifth and final season with "Where You Left Your Heart," finding Hope (Danielle Rose Russell) desperate to lure Klaus (Joseph Morgan) - absent for seven years at this point in the saga — back to New Orleans. The steps taken by Hope potentially have repercussions for many others. Elijah's absence has had a definite impact on Klaus, evident when he runs into Caroline Forbes (guest star, and "Vampire Diaries" alum, Candice King). Riley Voelkel and Charles Michael Davis also return.

LETHAL WEAPON 7 p.m. on KDFW

Guest star Thomas Lennon ("Reno 911!") is back as Leo Getz in the new episode "Leo Getz Hitched," which largely describes what happens in the story. However, the wedding leads Riggs and Murtaugh (Clayne Crawford, Damon Wayans Sr.) into the search for a missing person. Riggs also has an unexpected reunion, and Murtaugh gets news that could shake up his entire life. Kristen Gutoskie continues her guest role as Molly.

BLACK LIGHTNING 8 p.m. on KDAF

The latest addition to The CW's dynasty of DC Comicsinspired superhero shows concludes its first season with "Shadow of Death: The Book of War" - and that title alone indicates that more torment, mental as well as physical, is likely to be in store for the series' central hero (played by Cress Williams). Those closest to him are likely to feel the heat, too, as Tobias (Marvin Jones III) regroups. Nafessa Williams, China Anne McClain, Christine Adams and Damon Gupton also star.

SPLITTING UP TOGETHER 8:30 p.m. on WFAA

Oscar and Emmy winner Helen Hunt has been doing quite a bit of directing work this television season, and she adds this series to her resume by calling the shots on the new episode "Soups Jealous." Lena's (Jenna Fischer) budding relationship with Wes (guest star Trent Garrett) progresses, and while they're on another date, Martin (Oliver Hudson) contends with an ill Milo (Sander Thomas). Maya (Diane Farr) determines whether single parenthood is for her. Lindsay Price also stars.

RANSOM 7 p.m. on KTVT

Eric and Zara (Luke Roberts, Nazneen Contractor) experience a hostage situation from the other side as they become captives of an armed man while they're working for an investment bank in the new episode "Alters." The instigator is seeking revenge against an accountant, and Eric has to put twists on his usual negotiation tactics. Callum Blue and Matthew MacFsdzean guest star Sarah Greene and Brandon Jay McLaren also star.

ELVIS PRESLEY: THE SEARCHER

7 p.m., 2:05 a.m. on HBO

Filmmaker Thom Zinny, whose previous HBO projects include three well-received Bruce Springsteen documentaries, turns his focus to the creative journey of another musical titan in this new two-part documentary, which airs tonight in its entirety. Part 1 examines Elvis Presley's early life in Tupelo, Miss., where both black and white gospel music provided strong inspiration. He shot to fame in a single year — 1956 — with a string of hit records and memorable TV performances. Part 2 immediately follows.

BEFORE I FALL 8 p.m. on SHOW

The "Groundhog Day" premise of a person being compelled to relive the same day over and over gets a decidedly non-comedic makeover in this murky 2017 thriller starring Zoey Deutch ("The Disaster Artist") as Samantha Kingston, a teenager who goes through a thoroughly unsettling day that culminates in a vehicular accident that kills her and her friends. Events begin to repeat themselves when she awakes the next morning. Halston Sage ("The Orville") and Logan Miller ("Guardians of the Galaxy") also star.

I AM EVIDENCE

7 p.m., 2:30 a.m. on HBO

More than once, NBC's longrunning "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" has addressed the troubling issue of rape kits that are gathered then left untested. It's appropriate, then, that the police drama's star, Mariska Hargitay, is among the producers of this new documentary, which explores this same topic. The film features victims who have waited years for their kits to be tested, as well as law enforcement officials leading the fight to work through the staggering backlog sitting in police storage rooms.

SCORPION 9 p.m. on KTVT

The romance of Paige and Walter (Katharine McPhee, Elyes Gabel) was just getting started when this show's previous year ended — and now, it takes what's termed "a shocking turn" in the Season 4 finale, "A Life in the Sand." The story is set in Northeast Africa, where the team faces a literal minefield to try to save the locals. Toby and Happy (Eddie Kaye Thomas, Jadyn Wong) reach a decision about something major. Robert Patrick and Ari Stidham also star.

Scheduled performers include Rhett, Urban, Jason Aldean, Kelsea Ballerini, Dierks Bentley, Kenny Chesney, Luke Bryan, Florida Georgia Line, Lady Antebellum, Miranda Lambert, Maren Morris and Blake

THE WALKING DEAD 8 p.m., 11:17 p.m., 12:27 a.m., 2:44 a.m. on AMC

Showrunner Scott Gimple promises combat-weary viewers that tonight's Season 8 finale, "Wrath," will deliver a "conclusion" of sorts to the strife between the Saviors and the alliance of the Alexandria, Hilltop and Kingdom communities. It just may not be the kind of resolution either fans or the show's character's want; either way, there will be fallout to deal with next season. The season premiere of "Fear the Walking Dead," immediately follows.

PBS' 'Weekends With Yankee' hits the road for more New England foodie adventures

Never let it be said that Amy Traverso doesn't go all out for her work. Indeed, prior to filming Season 2 of "Weekends With Yankee," the show's co-host and senior food editor of Yankee Magazine did a summer road trip with her family, driving the length of the Maine coast, from Kittery to Canada, along the way sampling multiple lobster rolls in search of the best one – all so you don't have to.

Her findings can be found in the new season of the travel/culinary series, now airing on PBS stations.

"I think the joy of the lobster roll," she says, "is that all the elements come together in a single bite. So you have the butter on the outside of the bun, you have the mayonnaise or the butter that is the sauce and you have the sweet meat, and that's really all there is to it. So you kind of want to get all those flavors in one bite."

And the place that she found did that the best was McLoons, an unpretentious lobster shack situated on a working wharf in South Thomaston, just below Penobscot Bay.

"They do something which is really simple but really, I think, makes a difference," she says, "They use the mayo as a condiment. It's spread on the inside of the bun rather than tossed with the meat. A lot of places you go, they mix it in and they let it sit for a while and then it gets mushy and tastes more like mayonnaise than anything else. So I just appreciated all those little details, all that careful thought about how to handle a lobster roll and it really pays off in the eating."

Other second-season adventures take Traverso and co-host Richard Wiese to locales such as Greensboro, Vt., a tiny burg near the Canadian border that is home to a world-class microbrewery and cheese maker; Castle in the Clouds, a historic estate in the White Mountains of New Hampshire; Fenway Farms, a working rooftop garden at Boston's Fenway Park that provides produce for food served at the stadium; and the Maine culinary destination of Portland, where she sampled local delicacies such as duck fat fries and donuts made with potatoes.

"There's something about the energy of Portland," Traverso says. "I think chefs are a little bit freer to do food that's more personal, maybe a little more experimental. Rents relative to a lot of major cities are less

"It's an exciting place to eat and everything is of a whole," she continues. "You have the farms feeding the restaurants and the food coming right in. And I feel like every restaurant you eat at in Portland, you know that you're in Portland. There's a very local identity there that
