QUEEN OF THE SOUTH

8 p.m., 10:52 p.m. on USA

After a nearly deadly faceoff with former boss and, now, deadly rival Camila Vargas (Veronica Falcon) last season, cartel empress Teresa Mendoza (Alice Braga) strikes out on her own, determined to build a new empire for herself as this actionpacked drama returns for its third season. The premiere, "La Ermitana" (Spanish for "the hermit") finds Teresa laying low in Malta, before taking a first step into her new enterprise by striking a deal with a dangerous money launderer.

TAKE TWO 9 p.m. on WFAA

Eddie Cibrian has gone the television-detective route before, in "CSI: Miami," but it's the first time for Rachel Bilson ("Hart of Dixie") as they're paired in this new, light crime drama. Ironically, she plays an actress who used to be a cop on TV, and she tries to recover from a career downslide by partnering with a private eye (Cibrian) to solve cases. If their teaming has echoes of the lead characters' rapport and repartee in"Castle," there's good reason: This show is from the same creator-producers.

d 12 MONKEYS 7 p.m., 4 a.m. on SYFY

This time-traveling scifi series returns for its fourth and final season that will see James Cole and Dr. Cassandra Railly (Aaron Stanford, Amanda Schull) traveling further back in time than ever before as they search for a weapon to stop the Witness, revealed to be Olivia (Alisen Down) in the Season 3 finale. As the action resumes in "The End," the first of tonight's three back-to-back episodes, the final conflict begins as the Witness returns to Project Splinter.

LIFE SENTENCE 8 p.m. on KDAF

The series concludes its run with "Then and Now," as Stella (Lucy Hale) faces the aftermath of detailing her life with Wes (Elliot Knight) on social media ... which, not surprisingly, opens the couple up to all sorts of scrutiny from acquaintances and strangers alike. A health crisis inspires Peter (Dylan Walsh) to make a major decision. Aiden (Jayson Blair) tries to keep his hopes for the bar alive. Brooke Lyons, Carlos PenaVega and Gillian Vigman also star.

C.B. STRIKE 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 1 a.m. on CINE

Part 3 of "The Cuckoo's Calling" wraps up this investigation for Strike (Tom Burke), as Robin (Holliday Grainger) pays a visit to a boutique where Lula shopped on her last day. She's hoping to get some key information from a salesperson who secretly recorded the supermodel's conversation with the equally ill-fated Rochelle. Strike, meanwhile, obsessively studies CCTV footage and covertly searches Lula's family home, which eventually points him in the direction of the killer.

MASTERCHEF 7 p.m. on KDFW

The top 20 home cooks get a break from their usual kitchen surroundings as they take a field trip to the historic Anheuser Busch brewery in Los Angeles, where they'll undertake their first team challenge of this season in the new episode "Trouble Brewing." Split into two groups, the cooks must prepare a beerinfused lunch for more than 100 of the facility's employees. Afterwards, the diners will cast their votes for favorite dishes. The less successful team must face a banana cream pie pressure test. Gordon Ramsay, Aaron Sanchez and Joe Bastianich are the judges.

THE SPLIT 10 p.m., 1:20 a.m. on SUND

Hannah (Nicola Walker) is a seasoned pro when it comes to navigating other people's lives, but she's forced to consider some painful questions about her own in the new "Episode 5." A remorseful Nina (Annabel Scholey) tries to make amends for all the pain she has caused, while Rose (Fiona Button) frantically tries to address the aftermath of her headstrong sister's outburst. Goldie (Meera Syal), meanwhile, rejects a settlement offer, smelling blood in her fight with Davey (Stephen Tompkinson).

CIVILIZATIONS 7 p.m. on KERA

Whatever an artist's concept for a piece of work, two elements are essential to the effect that the final product has, and those are considered by the new episode "Color and Light." Narrator Liev Schreiber ("Ray Donovan") examines what the intent of any given painting is supposed to be, whether realistic or spiritual, and how the title elements can help the creator to achieve the intended impact. Examples both classic and contemporary are cited.

FORGED IN FIRE 8 p.m., 11:03 p.m. on HIST

In a new episode called "Bagh Nakh Blades," each of the bladesmiths is tasked with creating a canister Damascus using nuts and bolts, a challenge with enough twists and turns to quickly discern which will be the two finalists. That pair of contenders face a final round requiring them to recreate a pair of deadly Indian Bagh Nakh weapons, nasty bladed implements designed to fit across the knuckles or sit concealed within the palm.

TEACHERS 9:34 p.m., 12:34 a.m. on TV LAND

In the new episode "Of Lice and Men," Ms. Cannon (Caitlin Barlow) belatedly is getting around to learning how to drive, but she might have picked a better time for it — as in, virtually anytime there wasn't a raging lice infestation going on like the one at her school. Meanwhile, now that her romance with Hot Dad (Ryan Caltagirone) no longer is starcrossed, demure Ms. Bennigan (Katie O'Brien) wrestles with how far she is willing to go with him.

This adaptation of a novel by Charles Martin doesn't offer many surprises in its story, but its two main players hold interest through sheer star

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE 7 p.m. on KDFW

Brimming with pleasure over some of the promising candidates they found at the West Coast sessions in Los Angeles, judges Nigel Lythgoe, Mary Murphy, Vanessa Hudgens and Stephen "tWitch" Boss shift their focus to New York in the new episode "Auditions No. 3." Home to Broadway, multiple dance companies and other performance venues, the Big Apple could very well produce some of the best and — this is crucial — most versatile competitors Season 15 will feature. Cat Deeley is host.

THE PROPOSAL 9:01 p.m. on WFAA

This new series might not bear any form of the word "Bachelor" in its title, but rest assured that it's only a step removed from that franchise, especially since it's from the same production entity. Jesse Palmer — who knows more than a bit about such affairs, since he was "The Bachelor" in Season 5 — serves as host as 10 people vie for the affection of someone who only hears and doesn't see them before making his or her romantic choice. Of course, contenders are eliminated as the contest proceeds.

INSTINCT 7 p.m. on KTVT

A series of suicide bombings baffles Dylan and Lizzie (Alan Cumming, Bojana Novakovic) in the new episode "Blast From the Past," since the perpetrators seemed highly unlikely to commit such acts. Julian (Naveen Andrews) has concerns about Dylan's intention to hire a publicist (guest star Nikki M. James).

MAN IN AN ORANGE SHIRT ON MASTERPIECE 8 p.m. on KERA

This new merging of two tales by novelist Patrick Gale features Oscar winner Vanessa Redgrave and relates love stories that are separated by 60 years. The first is set during World War II, when a soldier and the artist he saves (played by Oliver Jackson-Cohen and James McArdle) develop a deep personal connection. Six decades later, the cottage that was a refuge for those men becomes the home of a veterinarian (Julian Morris, also seen recently in the latest version of "Little Women") and his grandmother (Redgrave).

SHADES OF BLUE 9 p.m. on KXAS

The Jennifer Lopez-starring police drama begins its third and final season, as her New York detective character Harlee Santos continues to try to do the right thing while dealing with deception and corruption around and within her squad. Ray Liotta also returns as Lt. Matt Wozniak, whose habit of operating outside the lines often creates complications for his officers. Bruce McGill ("Rizzoli & Isles") plays a major role in this concluding round as an FBI operative.
