THE GONG SHOW 7 p.m. on WFAA

The reboot of the decidedly offbeat game show ends its second season as Ken Jeong ("Community"), Chelsea Peretti ("Brooklyn Nine-Nine") and Adam Devine ("Pitch Perfect") form the celebrity panel judging the unusual acts that take the stage. For the program's sophomore round, no secret has been made that host "Tommy Maitland" actually is Mike Myers - which many people guessed during the first season anyway.

THE ORIGINALS 8 p.m. on KDAF

Klaus (Joseph Morgan) gets stunning information from Ivy (guest star Shiva Kalaiselvan), pertaining to the forces that are separating him from his family, in "God's Gonna Trouble the Water." Elijah (Daniel Gillies) needs help, and acts accordingly, in his efforts to save Antoinette (guest star Jaime Murray).

SNOWFALL 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12 a.m. on FX

Franklin (Damson Idris) desperately needs to recover some stolen merchandise, but doing so will force him to confront his past in a new episode called "The Offer." Elsewhere, Teddy (Carter Hudson) and his brother, Matt (guest star Jonathan Tucker), make a journey to Central America.

WE DAY 7 p.m. on WFAA

An annual television event for the past several years, this large gathering of youngsters and celebrities - one of a number of such occasions staged yearly — features John Stamos as the host introducing others who aim to inspire youths to do great things in their communities and the world. Others appearing include Jennifer Aniston, Will Ferrell, Selena Gomez, Martin Sheen, Whoopi Goldberg, Dr. Phil McGraw and music's Chainsmokers, Dierks Bentley and Cyndi Lauper.

WYNONNA EARP 8 p.m. on SYFY

Series creator and showrunner Emily Andras reteams with guest star Zoie Palmer, who played Dr. Lauren Lewis on "Lost Girl," in the new episode "Jolene." The hour takes its title from the character Palmer plays, a karaokeloving free spirit and friend of Wynonna and Waverly (Melanie Scrofano, Dominique Provost-Chalkley), who find their fun times seriously disrupted by a new demon who is raising havoc in Purgatory. Tim Rozon, Katherine Barrell and Shamier Anderson also star.

EXTREME CAKE MAKERS

9 p.m., 1 a.m. on COOK

Suzanne, a celebrated master of detail, hopes to satisfy her client's request for something unique by devising a cake in the form of a pair of legs that are made for walking in the new episode "Cake Freedom." Elsewhere, Molly has a single day to prepare cakes in the form of four playful and highly realistic kitty cats, while Michelle delivers a cake that is literally a tall order. Finally, Rosie designs a cake that bears an empowering message.

BURDEN OF TRUTH

7 p.m. on KDAF
Unhappy that

Unhappy that their jobs are at risk over the legal claim against the mill, its workers are pitted against the ill young women in the new episode "Witch Hunt." The tension intensifies when a clergyman's daughter also becomes sick, and when other parents elect to keep their daughters home from school, the principal reacts strongly - prompting Joanna (Kristin Kreuk) to take countermeasures. She's in for a big surprise when she finds out who's representing the mill. Peter Mooney also stars.

THE STORY OF THE ROYALS 8 p.m. on WFAA

It's not hard to guess the subject of this new documentary miniseries, a shared venture by ABC News and People Magazine. Concluding Thursday, the program does present a history of England's monarchy, but the emphasis is on the modern era that has yielded two globally popular couples. Here, much of the content traces the relationship of Prince William and Kate Middleton. British historians contribute their observations. Correspondents include Bob Woodruff, Rebecca Jarvis and Chris Connelly.

BEAT SHAZAM 7 p.m. on KDFW

In the new "Episode Twelve," host Jamie Foxx welcomes more two-person teams who compete to see who has a better knowledge when it comes to some of the biggest musical hits of past decades. The team who achieves the highest score then goes up against the song identification app Shazam for a chance to win up to a cool million in prize money. Special guests include Shaquille O'Neil and former boy band members Lance Bass and Joey McIntyre; Corinne Foxx, Jamie's daughter, is the DJ.

THE OUTPOST 8 p.m. on KDAF

Talon (Jessica Green) vows to find the mysterious and elusive "Book of Names" in this new episode of that title, which also sees the true identity of Gwynn (Imogen Waterhouse) finally revealed. Talon also agrees to serve as an escort for Janzo (Anand Desai-Barochia) as he embarks to attend a meeting with the supplier of the Worm's colipsum, outside the protecting walls of the Outpost. Jake Stormoen, Philip Brodie, Andrew Howard and Michael Flynn also star.

MAKING IT 9:01 p.m. on KXAS

12

The title of the new episode "All of the Holidays at Once" describes the challenge faced by the Makers, as they have to create items for several of the major celebratory occasions of any year. Halloween is one of them, with whatever material is readily at hand going into creative costumes. Of course, Christmas also is in the list, with decorative doors as another part of the test. Amy Poehler and Nick Offerman are hosts and executive producers here.

DARKEST HOUR 7 p.m., 12:25 a.m. on HBO

Veteran actor Gary Oldman won an Academy Award as best actor — along with a Golden Globe, a BAFTA Award and a SAG Award, among other accolades - for his uncanny portrayal of Winston Churchill during his early days as Prime Minister of Great Britain, which saw Nazi Germany's imposing forces sweeping across Western Europe.

IYANLA, FIX MY LIFE

8 p.m., 11 p.m. on OWN

Nakeda is a generally feckless young woman who doesn't seem to have a worry in the world, but Iyanla knows a walking train wreck when she sees one in the new episode "6 Kids, 5 Baby Daddies & No Clue.' That episode title succinctly sums up Nakeda's outrageously sloppy lifestyle, which forces her mother, Illysha, to raise five of the six kids her daughter has by five different men. Iyanla soon discovers, however, that Nakeda's runaway dysfunction stems from a childhood trauma for which Illysha is responsible.

LYNYRD SKYNYRD: IF I LEAVE HERE TOMORROW 8 p.m., 10:05 p.m. on SHOW

Steven Kijak's new concert documentary incorporates rare interviews and previously unseen footage into a journey through the history and legend of one of America's most iconic rock bands. The good oi' boys from Jacksonville, Fla., emerged from the swamps of the Deep South and swiftly came to define a whole era with their hard-rocking sound, haunting lyrics and drunken antics that verged on the dangerous. Then there was the matter of how they used the Confederate flag, which sparked widespread controversy.

CELEBRITY FAMILY FEUD 7 p.m. on WFAA

Well-known in recent years for his "Sharknado" rounds, lan Ziering faces another sort of battle ... a friendlier one, as he and "The View" alum Sherri Shepherd (who is wildly hilarious here) bring their respective relatives into the first game of this episode. Then, comedy veteran Tommy Chong faces off against partners Derek Fisher and Gloria Govan along with loved ones in vying to guess what a "survey says" and win money for selected charities. Steve Harvey is the host.

CHESAPEAKE SHORES 8 p.m. on HALL

With all the good intentions in the world, Trace (Jesse Metcalfe) tries to take a more active part in the lives of Abby's (Meghan Ory) girls, reading them bedtime stories, but this new connection only serves to confuse the kids about how he fits into their family, in the new episode "This Rock Is Going to Roll." Although Jess (Laci Mailey) is still smarting from Bree's (Emilie Ullerup) manuscript, she needs her support more than ever during a visit to visit David (Carlo Marks) and his parents.

SHADES OF BLUE 9 p.m. on KXAS

Harlee (Jennifer Lopez) ends up in the hot seat, reasonably literally, as she testifies before a police commission in the new episode "By Virtue Fall." Wozniak (Ray Liotta) and her other colleagues have reasons to be concerned on many levels, and they do whatever they can to assist her from outside the hearing room. Drea de Matteo, Hampton Fluker, Vincent Laresca and Sarah Jeffery also star.
