TRIAL & ERROR 8 p.m. on KXAS

Though it appears that Lavinia (Kristin Chenoweth) is in the clear, the murder case isn't over yet in the new episode "A Family Affair." Strong suspicion falls elsewhere, and Josh (Nicholas D'Agosto) and his team seek information to continue their efforts - with Lavinia still serving as a needed

TAKE TWO 9 p.m. on WFAA

A case immediately becomes more complicated for Eddie and Sam (Eddie Cibrian, Rachel Bilson) in the new episode "Shadows of the Past," as their latest client - who hired them to find his missing wife — becomes a serial killer's latest victim. While investigating both situations, Eddie gets unhappy reminders of the reason he left the Los Angeles Police Department. Xavier DeGuzman, Aliyah O'Brien and Alice Lee also star.

FRESH OFF THE BOAT

7 p.m. on WFAA

Though Jessica (Constance Wu) doesn't want him to try out for the school football team, Eddie (Hudson Yang) is determined to do it for his girlfriend Alison (Isabella Alexander) in "First Day." Evan (lan Chen) skips a grade and becomes Emery's (Forrest Wheeler) classmate. Louis (Randall Park) resists changes that others want to make at the steakhouse.

WYNONNA EARP 8 p.m. on SYFY

They say there's "No Cure for Crazy," and some of this show's characters discover the truth of that in this new episode, wherein the depths of the forest yield some of its longheld secrets. Among those new discoveries is a clue into the uncanny past of Deputy Nicole Haught (Katherine Barrell). Meanwhile, Wynonna (Melanie Scrofano) pays an unscheduled visit to her mother (recurring guest star Megan Follows). Tim Rozon, Shamier Anderson, Dominique Provost-Chalkley and Varun Saranga also star.

HENRY ROLLINS: KEEP TALKING, PAL

9 p.m., 4:30 a.m. on SHOW

Formerly best known as the lead singer of the punk rock group Black Flag, the sometime actor and author also flexes his muscles as a storyteller in occasional spoken-word shows that find the outspoken Rollins holding forth on a wide-ranging series of topics comprising everything from politics to American culture at large. Much of it is funny, while some bits seem designed to provoke a strong response, whatever it may be, from his avid audience. This new one-hour special was filmed at one such event.

OUTBACK 7 p.m. on KERA

"Return of the Wet," the last of the three installments of the new miniseries, finds the heat wave that affects Island Kimberley impacting all life there. One result is extra peril for people who already take big risks by wading into waters that conceal crocodiles, since many animals also congregate to desperately needed hydration there. Birds also take their chances by migrating in large numbers, since some humans attempt to capture them with nets. Eventually, much-desired rain arrives.

GORDON RAMSAY'S 24 HOURS TO HELL AND BACK

8 p.m. on KDFW

Those of a certain age — or of devotion to Turner Classic Movies — will know the name Sandra Dee. However, it's a different one who runs the bar and grill that provides Gordon Ramsay and his "Hell on Wheels" with the season-finale mission in this episode set in Sacramento, Calif. Sandra Dee's Bar-B-Que & Seafood needs a big makeover, caused in part by family ties ... and, of course, Ramsay has only 24 hours to accomplish it.

AMERICA'S GOT TALENT 7 p.m. on KXAS

The season's contest moves into a new phase with the start of the live episodes ... and more specifically, the Live Quarter Finals. This first round of them is bound to have judges Mel B, Simon Cowell, Heidi Klum and Howie Mandel getting sharper in their critiques of acts that they (and, presumably, the viewing audience) have grown fond of. The results will be announced in another episode Wednesday. Tyra Banks is the

THE OUTPOST 8 p.m. on KDAF

Talon (Jessica Green) gets valuable - and somewhat unnerving — information from her rescuer in "Two Heads Are Better Than None," as she learns the very nature of her existence. The killing of a Prime Order officer prompts a determined search for the perpetrator. Jake Stormoen, Anand Desai Barochia, Imogen Waterhouse, Michael Flynn, Robyn Malcolm, Andrew Howard and Philip Brodie also

9 p.m., 11 p.m. on TBS

A charismatic millionaire who goes by the name Declan Stanwick (Jonno Roberts) rescues the survivors, but something about their genteel and dapper savior convinces Jess and Florence (Ally Maki, Jessica Lowe) that this man may not be who and what he claims to be in the new episode "Puke & Cigars." Taking pains not to raise any undue suspicions on the part of their host, the two women try to discover the true identity of Declan Stanwick.

LITTLE BIG SHOTS 7 p.m. on KXAS

The title "Tour de Harvey" should provide a big clue to the talent of one of the gifted youngsters showcased here - and indeed, that child is a professional cyclist as well as a sports reporter. Athletics also play a big role in other segments hosted by Steve Harvey, since they involve a basketball player - who's only 3 years old - and a Taekwondo champ. Also, a young drummer has a huge surprise when she gets to meet Sheila E.

I AM PAUL WALKER

8 p.m., 12:30 a.m. on PARMT

Filmmakers Derik Murray and Adrian Buitenhuis celebrate the life and career of a beloved young movie star and humanitarian whose life was cut short at age 40 by a 2013 car accident. The documentary incorporates exclusive footage from Paul Walker's family as well as comments from some of his closest friends and colleagues, including Tyrese Gibson, Walker's "The Fast and the Furious" franchise costar, and directors Rob Cohen and Wayne Kramer. The film also focuses on Walker's commitment to environmental causes and disaster relief.

FATAL VOWS 9 p.m., 12 a.m. on ID

Licensed psychotherapist and relationship expert Stacy Kaiser and attorney and forensic psychologists Dr. Brian Russell return as hosts of this true-crime series that examines murders that are connected to turbulent and high-stakes divorces as this show begins its sixth season. For the victims involved, having a marriage fall apart is painful, but what follows is much, much worse.

AMERICAN NINJA WARRIOR

7 p.m. on KXAS

It's back to the City of Brotherly Love, as the Richmond Power Plant serves as the setting for the Philadelphia City Finals in this new episode. Thirty qualifiers are back to tackle the obstacle course, which has an addition in a hurdle known as the Captain's Wheel. The contenders' mutual aim is to get to Las Vegas and a shot at the $1 million grand prize. Matt Iseman and Akbar Gbajabiamila are the hosts, with Kristine Leahy as co-host.

EVIL LIVES HERE 8 p.m., 11 p.m. on ID

This chilling true-crime series returns for Season 4, delivering more stories calculated to make you cast at least an occasional uneasy glance toward your spouse, significant other, roommate or other individual with whom you share what you like to think of as s safe place. Is that seemingly innocent person really a devil in disguise? Each episode chronicles an actual case in which someone begins to suspect something is just a mite "off" about someone close to them. Eventually, they realize they're horribly on target with that suspicion.

Young bakers let it all hang out on Food Network's 'Kids Baking Championship'

In considering the traits of the youthful contestants of "Kids Baking Championship" versus those of adult bakers, co-host Valerie Bertinelli has noticed a few key differences.

The kids, she says, are more prone to thinking outside the box and taking risks than their grown-up counterparts, but on the flip side they're not as adept at planning their bakes nor keeping their emotions in

But tears, of which there are plenty on the Monday Food Network series, aren't necessarily a bad thing,

"I don't think you need to keep your emotions in check," she says. "I think you let it out, you cry, you get it out and you can get to the other side. I think when you squash those emotions, they're going to come out eventually somehow, so get it out of the way. Get those tears out of the way, get the fear out of the way

"I think that's the whole thing with artistry, too," she continues. "I think when you are able to express your emotion and not tamp it back, it lets you go to bigger places. I'm one of those people that thinks that crying is great. I think it releases an emotion that you've been stuffing back and I think kids are really great at just letting their emotions out. You know, it's all on the surface; it's who they are. And I mean, Duff (Goldman, her co-host) and I get a lot of grief online: 'How can you do that? These poor little children are

"It's like crying is good. Crying's an emotion. It's healthy."

But the kids aren't the only ones in tears on the series that sees bakers ages 10-13 vying for the title of Kids Baking Champion, a feature in Food Network Magazine and a $25,000 grand prize over the course of seven episodes. Bertinelli has found herself getting emotional when the time comes to eliminate a contestant.

Which is why she lets Goldman handle it. "Absolutely, I make him deliver the bad news," she says with a laugh. "I can't do it. It already breaks our hearts to have to send someone home."
