The decision on who will be named 19's new captain is delayed by the immediate need to battle a blaze in a skyscraper, leaving several lives in peril. Chandra Wilson guest stars in her "Grey's Anatomy" role. Jaina Lee Ortiz, Grey Damon and Danielle Savre also star.

For fans who may want a refresher about where this cliffhangerprone show left things, an encore of the Season 4 finale, "Nobody Else Is Dying," finds Annalise (Emmy winner Viola Davis) and her inner circle confronted by a suspicious death that ultimately leads to a shocking arrest. ### 12 STRONG 6:45 p.m., 10:50 p.m. on Ted Tally, who won an Academy Award for his screenplay adaptation of "Silence of the Lambs," crafted his screenplay (with Peter Craig) for this 2018 combat drama from a nonfiction book by Doug Stanton, about the U.S. Army Special Forces sent to Afghanistan immediately after the terrorist attacks of 9/11. The strong cast includes Chris Hemsworth, Michael Shannon, Michael Pena, Geoff Stults and Thad Luckinbill, who is also one of the producers. Nicolai Fuglsig directed.

WYNONNA EARP 8 p.m. on SYFY

Most current TV shows at some point seem inclined to give their own spin to the hit movie comedy "Groundhog Day," in which a character must relive a day or an experience until he learns some life lesson. Such may prove to be the case in the new episode "Undo It," which sees history repeating itself, over and over, as Wynonna (Melanie Scrofano) is faced with a seemingly impossible choice. Elsewhere, Waverly and Nicole (Dominique Provost-Chalkley. Katherine Barrell) visit a jeweler.

KILLJOYS 9 p.m. on SYFY

Utilizing an unusual cult's advanced biological technology, the members of Team Awesome Force embark on a desperate mission to take back control of the RAC, so they can, with a lot of luck, save the children of Westerley, who are being held captive at the moment in the new episode "The Kids Are Alright?." Hannah John-Kamen, Aaron Ashmore, Luke Macfarlane, Thom Allison, Kelly McCormack and Atticus Mitchell star.

THE GREAT AMERICAN READ 7 p.m. on KERA

Most of the best-loved novels that make up the basis of this series recount the lives of fictional characters, yet their stories often resonate on a powerful level with readers, leading them to ponder questions about their own lives and identify clues that help them to find their own place in the real world. That's the aspect of great books that is the primary focus of host Meredith Vieira and her guests in the new episode "Who Am I?."

THE PURGE 9 p.m., 12:01 a.m. on USA

A shaky Penelope (Jessica Garza) tries to prepare herself to make the necessary sacrifice in a new episode called "The Urge to Purge." Meanwhile, Rick and Jenna (Colin Woodell, Hannah Anderson) stop to ponder some of the "intangibles" added to the cost of closing their business deal. Gabriel Chavarria and Lee Tergesen also star.

UNSPEAKABLE CRIME: THE KILLING OF JESSICA CHAMBERS

6 p.m., 9 p.m., 12 a.m. on OXY

Filmmaker Joe Berlinger (the "Paradise Lost" trilogy) helmed this five-part series that revisits the murder of a small-town cheerleader with a wholesome reputation but a lot of secrets. Quinton Tellis, a local black man, was arrested and charged with the crime, and his subsequent trial inflamed racial tensions in their town. The series premiere, "Who Killed Jessica Chambers?," revisits the horrifying crime itself, as the 19-year-old Chambers is set on fire inside her own car.

MY CAT FROM HELL

7 p.m., 10 p.m., 2 a.m. on ANPL

Cat Daddy Jackson Galaxy probably knew he would face a challenge when a client booked him to help a cat named Lucifer, but the devilish nature of the situation surprises him in the new episode "Lucifer the Cat." This kitty is totally obsessed with eating, and his chronic pursuit of food has reached the point where his health is threatened.

LOVE IN DESIGN 8 p.m. on HALL

To boost sagging ratings for her home design TV show, Hannah (Danica McKellar) reluctantly lets her boss talk her into hosting a show from her quaint hometown, where the locals favor a cozy traditional style that is completely at odds with the sleek, modern look Hannah favors. Her assignment, renovating a historic manor into a B&B, becomes even more complicated when Hannah meets the architect assigned to work with her on the project: her ex-boyfriend, Jeff (Andrew W. Walker).

ELEMENTARY 9 p.m. on KTVT

Season 6 ends on an apparent cliffhanger in the conclusion of a two-part finale called "Whatever Remains, However Improbable." Fans shouldn't lose too much sleep, however: Last May, CBS picked up the series for its seventh season.

The upcoming U.S. midterms are being touted in some quarters as "the most important election of your life," and as exhausted Americans try to endure ever more heightened partisan rhetoric, this acclaimed documentary series returns to complete its third season with nine new episodes. The show returns to its early roots as well, as hosts John Heilemann, Mark McKinnon and Alex Wagner hit the campaign trail for these elections, which will determine the control of Congress, among other things.

THE LAST SHIP 8 p.m., 9 p.m. on TNT

In a situation laced with the bitterest of ironies, the crew of the Nathan James — a battleship fitted with the absolute latest in state-of-the-art features - confront circumstances that have, in essence, thrust them back to World War II in respect to the military technology available to them. That means their resourcefulness and ingenuity are tested as never before as they enter a highstakes conflict with rudimentary weapons capabilities in the new episode "Fog of War."

BALLERS 9 p.m., 11:30 p.m., 1:30 a.m. on HBO

Elsewhere, Spencer (Dwayne Jackson) recruits Q (Eli Goree) to help leverage a deal, while Charles (Omar Benson Miller) plays host at a pre-free-agent reception.

Louisiana cuisine done right on Food Network's 'Cajun Aces'

"Timing as in sauteeing vegetables down to a certain point before you add something else." explains Cody Carroll, who with wife Sam hosts Food Network's "Cajun Aces." "And then sauteeing garlic down or browning meat down. If you don't know how to cook stuff and time it right, you're not going to cook Cajun food."

Each week on the recently premiered Saturday daytime series, the chefs and owners of two Louisiana restaurants show how to do Cajun and Creole cuisine right, sharing recipes rooted in their Cajun background from their kitchen on their family farm and demonstrating easy-to-make dishes that don't sacrifice flavor, among them a

Just like many things in life, Cajun cuisine is all Creole potato salad, a corn and shrimp soup and biscuits made from scratch.

> They'll also demonstrate trickier recipes like a gumbo, a Cajun standard that many home cooks

> "It's really timing your roux right," Cody says, referring to the dish's butter and flour base, "before you start adding everything else, caramelizing the onions, getting everything right. And if you don't time it, if you basically throw everything in at the same time, it turns into a soup, just a regular soup rather than a gumbo."

Which is why some are intimidated by the dish.

"Yeah, and we learned that firsthand," Sam says. "We actually got to go to Japan and teach different chefs in Japan how to make gumbo.

And a couple of them were terrified of the roux, like when Cody was teaching them how to brown the roux, they were laughing, like making fun of him thinking he was messing up. And he was like, 'No, this is what you're supposed to do.' "

"You can do your roux over-ripe," Cody adds. "If you go too far, you burn it, which that's your foundation for your whole gumbo. So if you mess your roux up, then you're done. You can't save a bad

What book are you currently reading?

(Cody) "I'm reading a book called 'On the Line' by Eric Ripert. That's like my favorite book and I read it like every day. It's really cool."

What is your next project?

(Sam) "We are going to China to accompany the Lieutenant Governor and we're going to travel through Shanghai and Beijing and cook Louisiana cuisine and kind of teach there, travel agents and all of their people in the U.S. Embassy about Louisiana food. ... (They're trying to encourage tourism to New Orleans) or just Louisiana in general. But it's going to be interesting. We're going to be on this trip for 13 days just trekking through China and cooking along the way. So it'll be fun."

When was your last vacation, where and why?

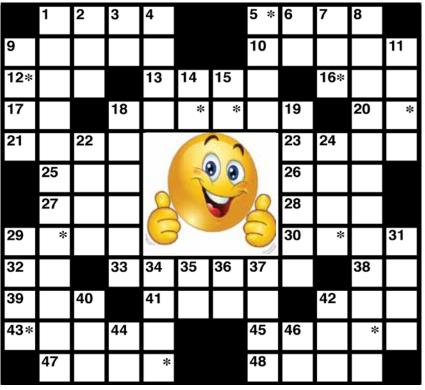

(Sam) "It was in July and we went to Jamaica. We brought our daughter to
