NFL PRESEASON FOOTBALL
7 p.m. on KXAS

The NFL preseason officially gets under way when the Arizona Cardinals and Dallas Cowboys meet in the annual Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio. The game now begins enshrinement week. Don't expect much action from starters like Zeke Elliott for the Cowboys or Carson Palmer for the Cardinals. Both teams, however, will be honoring inductees as former Arizona quarterback Kurt Warner and Cowboys owner Jerry Jones are both being enshrined this weekend. (N) HD (Live) CC

I LOVE KELLIE PICKLER
10 p.m., 12:30 a.m. on CMTV

The fun-loving and vivacious “American Idol” finalist reopens the door on her personal life with her husband, songwriter Kyle Jacobs, as this amiable unscripted series launches its third season. These new episodes will follow Pickler and Jacobs on several new and diverse offstate adventures, ranging from buying a new home together in Nashville to making a trek to Alaska, the only U.S. state the couple previously had not visited. AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

7 p.m. on KERA

The Berlin Olympics of the mid-1930s are remembered largely for the role of track-and-field medalist Jesse Owens, but other American athletes also made their marks in those Games, as recounted by “The Boys of ‘36.” Based on a best-seller by Daniel James Brown, it recalls the Depression-era inspiration supplied by nine University of Washington rowers who showed endurance not only against rivals backed by Adolf Hitler, but also elite U.S. teams. HD CC

MANHUNT: UNABOMBER

8 p.m., 10:02 p.m. on DISC, ID

Discovery’s highly touted scripted anthology series devotes its first eight-episode season to an insightful look back at how FBI agent Jim “Fitz” Fitzgerald (Sam Worthington, “Hack-saw Ridge”) brought down se-rial bomber Ted Kaczynski (Paul Bettany, “The Da Vinci Code”) through his work in forensic lin-guistics, ending a 17-year reign of terror. The fine cast also in-cludes Chris Noth, Jane Lynch, Keisha Castle-Hughes, Mark Du-plant and Brian d’Arcy James. (Premiere) (N) CC

FACE OFF

8 p.m., 11 p.m. on SYFY

Goodness, these challenges seem to be getting weirdly spec-ific: In a new episode called “Feral Fungi,” the six remaining special effects makeup artists are tasked with creating makeup for zombies. Not just any zom-bies, though — these particular walking dead were turned via contact with a fungal virus. McK-enzie Westmore is the host. (N) CC

REMEMBER ME

The new suspense drama concludes with "Episode 3" as Hannah and Sean (Jodie Comer, Jamie Rooney-West) find Tom (Michael Palin), who reveals much about the mysterious woman who claimed she would return for him — even after meeting her fate in a shipwreck. The sister (Sheila Hancock) of Tom's late wife may be the key to resolving the situation ... along with the song "Scarborough Fair." Mark Addy, Julia Sawalha, and Tony Pitts also star. (Series Finale) (N)

Some people — most notably Quinlan and Fet (Rupert Penry-Jones, Kevin Durand) — may think that stealing a nuclear warhead is no big deal, but in the new “One Shot,” the duo discovers it’s actually a pretty tricky gambit, especially when they encounter an unexpected enemy. Meanwhile, Eph and Alex (Corey Stoll, Angel Parker) concoct a new weapon to use against the Strigoi, while a bored Zack (Max Charles) discovers a love interest. (N) CC

Doing it for the love of the game

People who own and operate restaurants aren't doing it for the money. The work is hard, the hours are long and the compensation is modest at best – assuming the business survives. And then, of course, there are the health inspectors, the slacker employees, the broken equipment and the ever-rising cost of food – all issues with which the restaurateur must grapple. Those who enter this game do it because they love feeding people and making them happy. It's as simple as that.

Among them are celebrities, who start or put their names on individual eateries, franchises and chains in the hopes of parlaying it into a successful business, while providing employment and putting smiles on faces along the way. Some are more involved with their concerns than others. A few you might even find on site.

Gordon Ramsay: The prolific Michelin-starred chef and host of Fox's "The F Word" has restaurants around the world in locations such as Las Vegas, New York, Singapore, Hong Kong, France and Qatar. His Restaurant Gordon Ramsay chain has 14 eateries in London alone.

The Wahlberg brothers: Backed by his more famous brothers Mark and Donnie, chef Paul Wahlberg is the creative force behind Wahlburgers, a hamburger chain with locations in nine states (including their native Boston) and inspiration for the A&E Network reality series of the same name. Its motto, "making you happy makes us happy," says it all.

Robert De Niro: The Oscar-winning actor's Nobu, a chain of Japanese restaurants, has 37 locations on four continents. He's also partners with Ridley Scott and Harvey Weinstein in the West Hollywood eatery Ago.

Justin Timberlake: Ribs and fried chicken are what's on the menu at the "Rock Your Body" singer's Southern Hospitality, which has two restaurants in Colorado and one in New York City.

Michael Jordan: His Air-ness has a mini-chain of three restaurants, all named Michael Jordan's Steakhouse, with locations in New York, Chicago and Uncasville, Conn.

Toby Keith: In 2005, the country music star opened his I Love This Bar & Grill in Oklahoma City, and since then franchises have opened and closed, with three remaining in Oklahoma. Steaks, ribs and chops are the bread and butter of this concern, along with daily beer and drink specials.

Jon Bon Jovi: The rocker's JBJ Soul Kitchen takes an unconventional approach to feeding hungry patrons at its two New Jersey locations. You could be sitting with a stranger, the menu doesn't have prices and all items are "pay what you like," though a minimum $10 donation is suggested. If you can't pay that, you can exchange an hour of volunteer time for a healthful, organic meal. And guest chefs such as Mario Batali or Tom Colicchio could be preparing your meal, so maybe you'd want to pony up.

Jay-Z: The rap mogul's high-end New York sports bar 40/40 Club boasts a catwalk, a champagne tower and a reputation for state-of-the-art chicken wings.
