tonight's PICKS

SLEEPY HOLLOW 8 p.m. on KDFW

While trying to figure out how to present tough news to Diana (Janina Gavankar), Crane and Jenny (Tom Mison, Lyndie Greenwood) probe a case that appears to involve witchcraft in the new episode "In Plain Sight." Kamar de los Reyes guest stars. Jeremy Davies, Rachel Melvin and Jerry MacKinnon also star. (N)

GREAT PERFORMANCES

8 p.m. on KERA

Recalling the 1996-97 Peruvian hostage crisis, "Bel Canto the Opera" has been a passion project for celebrated soprano Renee Fleming, creative consultant of Lyric Opera of Chicago. She hosts this new telecast of the company's staging of the January 2016 piece, adapted by Jimmy Lopez and Nilo Cruz from a best-selling novel by Ann Patchett. Danielle de Niese plays American diva Roxane Coss, who became a pivotal link between the captors and captives. (N) HD CC

CRAZY EX-GIRLFRIEND

8 p.m. on KDAF

Veteran talent Patti LuPone ("Life Goes On") quest stars in the new episode "Will Scarsdale Like Josh's Shayna Punim?" as Rebecca's (Rachel Bloom) rabbi, with whom she reunites at a bar mitzvah. The meeting leaves Rebecca believing she has a long way to go before attaining the happiness she seeks. Tovah Feldshuh returns as Rebecca's mother. Vincent Rodriguez III, Pete Gardner, Gabrielle Ruiz, Donna Lynne Champlin and Vella Lovell also star. (N) HD CC

tonight's PICKS

GREY'S ANATOMY 7 p.m. on WFAA

Expect cliffhangers from "You Haven't Done Nothin'." Certain that a jail sentence is imminent for him, Alex (Justin Chambers) makes an enormous decision. The scene at the hospital is chaotic as those injured in the collapse of a building are brought in for treatment. Richard (James Pickens Jr.) wants to know about Eliza's (guest star Marika Dominczyk) presence, and he seeks the explanation from Bailey (Chandra Wilson). Ellen Pompeo also stars.

OPEN MARRIAGE 7 p.m., 11:02 p.m. on LIFE

As their marriage threatens to collapse under a surfeit of boredom and a sharply dwindling passion level, Ron and Becca warily agree to enter into an open relationship with close friends Mindy and Max, hoping the erotic novelty may jump-start the magic once again. At first it seems to work, as passions are rekindled, but none of them bargain for the jealousies, betrayals and heartache that eventually follow in this new 2017 drama. Tilky Jones, Nikki Leigh, Kelly Dowdle and Jason Tobias star. (Premiere) CC

QUEEN BOSS 9 p.m. on BET

In this new reality series, host Vanessa Simmons is all about empowerment as she offers both urgently needed financing and invaluable advice to young female entrepreneurs who come to her for help. Simmons says she wants to encourage young women to lift each other up and serve as inspirations to one another, not bitterly compete and tear other women down. Among those featured on this new series are TV executive Tracey Edmonds, attorney Lauren Lake and Kandi Burruss from "The Real Housewives of Atlanta." (Series Premiere) (N)

SHERLOCK ON MASTERPIECE

6 p.m. on KERA

"The Final Problem" is the title of the last of the new mysteries that comprise the drama's relatively brief Season 4. It's also the name of an actual Sir Arthur Conan Doyle story, but some of its elements were used earlier in this series — so it's anyone's guess as to whether this means the end of Holmes and Dr. Watson (Benedict Cumberbatch, Martin Freeman), at least as far as this incarnation of their adventures is concerned. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC

THE YOUNG POPE 8 p.m., 9 p.m., 10 p.m. on HBO

This new 10-part limited drama series — which airs a new episode each Sunday and Monday over the next five weeks — stars Jude Law as the former Lenny Belardo, now better known as Pius XIII since becoming the first American-born pope in history. Tonight's premiere chronicles how the charismatic pontiff reached the papal throne in the Vatican as an old friend, Sister Mary (Diane Keaton), arrives in Rome to serve as his chief advisor. James Cromwell, Silvio Orlando and Marcello Romolo also star. (Series Premiere) (N) CC

THE 44TH PRESIDENT: IN HIS OWN WORDS

8 p.m., 12:07 a.m. on HIST

Interviewed before and after the 2016 U.S. election, President Barack Obama reflects on his tenure in office in this new two-hour special, candidly discussing his successes and failures, as well as goals he is forced to leave unfinished and what he hopes will stand as his legacy. In addition to the president, White House staff members, lawmakers and members of the press also share their perspectives. (N) CC

tasty tv BY GEORGE DICKIE Fraser brings fun and creative thinking to Food Network's 'Kitchen Sink'

After the onslaught of heavy foods wrought by the holidays, viewers can come back to Earth with common sense kitchen tips and other useful culinary information in a series returning to Food Network this week.

In "Kitchen Sink," which returns Sunday, Jan. 15, co-hosts Tregaye Fraser, Spike Mendelsohn and Fanny Slater offer up a second season of food trends, Internet-inspired recipes, kitchen hacks, cooking shortcuts and other tips designed to educate and entertain. The co-hosts also head out of the studio and onto the street to check out various eateries and the new trends they are inspiring.

Fraser, a Cordon Bleu-trained chef based in Atlanta, comes to the show after winning the 12th season of "Food Network Star." Her passions are fusion cuisine, thinking outside-the-box and fun – all of which she promises to bring to the show.

"I'm the fun police," the 32-year-old Fraser says. "When I come in here, we've got to have fun at all times. And just really taking people's minds to another level about foods and mixing and matching ingredients that people may think don't necessarily go together. So I think I'm going to be here to make people believe that you can try anything and it'll be great."

Such as?

"Well, I do these deviled eggs and I put fried chicken on top," she says with a laugh. "I also do a ham and cheddar chicken waffle sandwich, so it's

(214) 946-9065 Dedicated to Serving Your Family like a ham-and-cheddar waffle with fried chicken as the meat."

Being a wife and mother, she's also a fan of kitchen organization and a current trend toward making dishes using only five ingredients.

"You know, a lot of people think that's not possible but when they watch the show they'll see how it's possible," she says. "People think you need a million ingredients. You really don't."

What book are you currently reading?

"Actually I'm reading a book called 'David and Goliath' by Malcolm Gladwell. It's about underdogs and battling giants. You know, it's me entering this new world and it helps you think better. You know, you may doubt yourself and it helps you with it."

What did you have for dinner last night?

"I actually had salmon, spinach and some mixed vegetables. I'm doing the whole seafood and veggie thing and I'm trying to stay away from rice. It's the hardest thing ever but I'm trying to do it (laughs). ... I've been doing good so far so we'll see how it goes."

What is your next project?

"Besides the 'Kitchen Sink,' I'm trying to work on my junior chef summer camp. We've been working on that all year, so I'm hoping by summer we can have a location for my junior chefs. We can go and cook every day and go to farms and learn and have fun. ... I love it. Kids are the future and I love when a kid is really into it and they really want to do it and you don't even have to push them. It's effortless."

tonight's PICKS

THE YOUNG POPE 8 p.m., 10:50 p.m., 1:40 a.m. on HBO

As Lenny (Jude Law) prepares to make his first public appearance, the Vatican's marketing director (Cecile De France) gets a surprise directive in the new "Second Episode." Elsewhere, Sister Mary (Diane Keaton) touches base with Andrew Dussolier (Scott Shepherd), another orphan turned cardinal who was Lenny's childhood pal. Lenny tries to mend fences with the embittered Cardinal Spencer (James Cromwell) by offering him a high Vatican post, but their meeting does not go as the Pope had wished it would. (N) CC

TIMELESS 9 p.m. on KXAS

Lucy's (Abigail Spencer) destination is quite targeted when Flynn (Goran Visnjic) abducts her in the new episode "The World's Columbian Exposition." That is another name for the 1893 World's Fair in Chicago, where the only person who may be able to help Lucy is someone by the name of Harry Houdini. (Yes, that Houdini.) Wyatt (Matt Lanter) and Rufus (Malcolm Barrett) make their own rescue attempt across time anyway. Sakina Jaffrey and Paterson Joseph also star. (N) HD CC

NEW GIRL 7 p.m. on KDFW

Jess (Zooey Deschanel) is on a couple of searches in the new episode "Cece's Boys." While trying to select a new vice principal — and finding herself hesitant to choose — she and Reagan (guest star Megan Fox) are asked by Cece (Hannah Simone) to help find models. Nick, Schmidt and Winston (Jake Johnson, Max Greenfield, Lamorne Morris) take a spa day together. (N) HD © (DVS)

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE 7 p.m. on KERA

Originally shown in 2009, "The Assassination of Abraham Lincoln" remembers the 16th president of the United States by focusing on the two months following his death, when a nation mourned and authorities sought his killer. Actor Will Patton ("Armageddon") reads the words of assassin John Wilkes Booth as the program contrasts his life and mindset with those of Lincoln, whose body was carried in the last car of a train that passed by millions who paid respects. HD CC (DVS)

FRONTLINE 8 p.m. on KERA

With a new administration about to enter the White House. the new two-part episode "Divided States of America" concluding Wednesday - examines events of the past eight years that may have fostered the results of the recent election. The opening half focuses on President Barack Obama's promises of change and unity in the United States, and how those played out during his two terms against the actual racial and social climate in the country. ### PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARDS 2017

8 p.m. on KTVT

The annual event — in which the public votes for favorites in movies, television, music and digital media from the past year — is broadcast from the Microsoft Theater L.A. Live, with Joel McHale ("The Great Indoors") serving as host. Topping the motion-picture nominees is "Captain America: Civil War" with seven bids, while "Grey's Anatomy" leads TV contenders with five nominations. Up for three awards here, Ellen DeGeneres would set a record with one win. (N) HD (Live) CC

FRONTLINE 8 p.m. on KERA

In the conclusion of the new two-part episode "Divided States of America," social, racial and political factors that played into the 2016 presidential election are surveyed. As the program's title suggests, the word "division" largely defined the situation — including the splits within the Republican Party as Donald Trump and other candidates vied for the nomination. The state of America as it's inherited by the President-elect is considered. (N) HD (Part 2 of 2) CC (DVS)

GREY'S ANATOMY 7 p.m. on WFAA

Lest there be any question of this medical drama's continuing popularity, it's the mostnominated television program in this year's fan-chosen People's Choice Awards. It resumes its 13th season with the new episode "You Can Look (But You d Better Not Touch)," taking Bailey, Arizona and Jo (Chandra Wilson, Jessica Capshaw, Camilla Luddington) to a maximum-security prison for women to treat a pregnant, violenceprone teen. Caterina Scorsone also stars. (N) HD CC

MY KITCHEN RULES

8:01 p.m. on KDFW

Veteran music star Naomi Judd and her husband, Larry Strickland, form the first celebrity cooking couple featured in this new episode. They're completely sold on their lasagna, so they wonder about the veracity of the scores that come in for the dish. The focus then shifts to Brandi Glanville and her kitchen-skilled friend Dean Sheremet (seen recently on "Terry Crews Saves Christmas"), as they take a gamble by preparing an especially challenging entree.
