PEOPLE BEHIND THE STORY

7 p.m. on WFAA

Airing in conjunction with this week's miniseries about several pioneers of the LBGTQ rights movement, this new documentary showcases the actual people on whom the dramatic project is based. Cleve Jones, Roma Guy, Ken Jones, Diane Jones and Cecilia Chung discuss their experiences, and the actors who portray them also comment. The overall history of gay rights is considered as well during the hour. (N) HD CC

WHEN WE RISE 8 p.m. on WFAA

The penultimate portion of the new four-part miniseries deals largely with the AIDS crisis of the early 1990s, with Cleve Jones (Guy Pearce) among those who have contracted the disease. That doesn't stop him from initiating the Names Project AIDS Memorial quilt. Roma and Diane (Mary-Louise Parker, Rachel Griffiths) are prompted to find the father of Diane's daughter, leading to a surprising discovery. (N) (Part 3 of 4) CC

COLONY 9 p.m. on USA

Will and Katie (Josh Holloway, Sarah Wayne Callies) must come up with a way to save a fugitive from the occupation in the new episode "Good Intentions." Meanwhile, at the camp, Snyder (Peter Jacobson) hides evidence, and Broussard's (Torry Kittles) cell is threatened by one of their own. (N) CC (DVS)

VICE 6:30 p.m., 10 p.m., 12 a.m. on HBO

The hard-hitting and Emmywinning weekly news magazine, which specializes in in-depth coverage of news that is usually overlooked by the mainstream media, returns for its fifth season. which has been expanded to feature 30 new episodes, a hefty increase of the 18 episodes in Season 4. EMERALD CITY 8 p.m. on KXAS

Heightened trouble may be in the offing as the Wizard (Vincent D'Onofrio) comes to the Kingdom of Ev in the new episode "The Villain That's Become." His dealings with Langwidere (guest star Stefanie Martini) could turn highly problematic at any time. Dorothy (Adria Arjona) and Lucas (Oliver Jackson-Cohen) become opponents, while Tip (Jordan Loughran) and West (Ana Ularu) reaffirm their alliance. Jack (Gerran Howell) reaches a dangerous decision. SHARK TANK 8 p.m. on WFAA

It had to happen on this series, and in this new episode, one of the agreements between entrepreneurs and the Sharks takes the show over the $100-million mark of deals made over the program's eight-season history. Among the contenders to do that: two San Diego people sold on, and hoping to sell others on, their brand of nutrients; and college friends from Brooklyn, N.Y., who market apparel illustrated with elephants. The Sharks include Mark Cuban and Lori Greiner. (N) ID CC (DVS)

WHEN WE RISE 8 p.m. on WFAA

In the second part of the new miniseries about the roots of the LB-GTQ rights movement, a 1978 battle against Proposition 8 — which would prohibit gays from public-school employment in California — is waged by Cleve Jones, Ken Jones and Roma Guy (Guy Pearce, Michael K. Williams, Mary-Louise Parker). The fate of San Francisco politician Harvey Milk (the subject of an Oscarwinning film written by this project's Dustin Lance Black) becomes a rallying cry. CHICAGO JUSTICE 9 p.m. on KXAS

The "preview" premiere of this drama, normally to be seen Sundays, concludes a story started on "Chicago Fire" and "Chicago P.D." In "Fake," prosecuting attorney Peter Stone (Philip Winchester) — the son of "Law & Order's" Ben Stone opposes a cunning defense lawyer (Bradley Whitford) in seeking justice for the victims of a devastating fire at a warehouse turned work space.

LEGION

9 p.m., 10:30 p.m., 1 a.m., 2 a.m. on FX

The new episode "Chapter Four" finds David (Dan Stevens) in trouble once again, even as his friends are searching for answers. Of course, one of the biggest challenges fac-ing David Haller is discerning who are his friends, who are his secret nemeses and, of course, who are complete figments of his imagination? Jean Smart and Mackenzie Gray also star. (N) CC

FRESH OFF THE BOAT 7 p.m. on WFAA

Eddie (Hudson Yang) becomes the prime suspect when the papaya Jessica (Constance Wu) likes to have each morning vanishes in the new episode "Living While Eddie." She's not the only one who points a finger at him, since a record-store owner also accuses him of theft, convincing Jessica that something more may be going on. The restaurant becomes the location of an infomercial shoot. David Wain guest stars. Randall Park and Ian Chen also star. (N)

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS 8 p.m. on KDFW, KXAS, WFAA, KTVT

Most of the broadcast and all of the cable news networks cover President Donald Trump's first address to a joint session of Congress, which is a yearly tradition of holding the nation's highest office. Given that the current chief executive came from outside the political spectrum, this could be a speech like none of its type before, a point that various anchors and commentators are sure to make. The Democratic Party's response follows immediately. (N) LED (Live)

TABOO 9 p.m., 10:30 p.m., 12:30 a.m. on FX

There were more than a few people who dismissed this period thriller as a vanity project for star and creator Tom Hardy, but given he was fresh off his Oscarnominated turn in "The Revenant," few would argue he doesn't deserve to show off. In the Season 1 finale, the Prince Regent (Mark Gatiss, who moonlights as a writer on 'Sherlock") reaches the end of his rope and sets into play one last scheme he hopes will destroy James Delaney (Hardy). THE PRINCESS AND THE FROG 11 a.m. on DISN

Much was made of this cartoon feature boasting the first African-American heroine in the history of Disney animation, but the fantasy — an Oscar nominee for best animated feature — otherwise marks a return to many of the studio's traditions in the genre. Young New Orleans resident Tiana (voice of Anika Noni Rose) encounters a prince-turned-frog (voice of Bruno Campos) ... and finds herself sharing his plight following their expected kiss.

INFIDELITY IN SUBURBIA

7 p.m., 11:02 p.m. on LIFE

Ladies, if you're dating a hot home renovation expert, consider this new 2016 thriller a cautionary tale. Bored housewife and mother Laura (Sarah Butler) needs a way to fill the long hours while her hubby is at work and their son is at school, so she undertakes a home remodeling project — and, in short order, a torrid affair with her sexy contractor, Vince (Marcus Rosner). Sarah tries to end the affair, but Vince responds by building a secret room in the house where he can keep her all to himself. (Premiere) CC

THE ZOO

Law & Order "Ramparts" @ Law & Order "Hunters" @

9 p.m., 12 a.m., 4 a.m. on ANPL

A new episode called "Handle With Care" finds Dr. Murray tasked with treating a sick Komodo Dragon, while Craig trains a new keeper in the proper way to confront and handle the Bronx Zoo's cheetahs. Sarah tries to train some of the zoo's most intimidating cats, and Lucy examines a sloth bear. (N)

THE OSCARS 7:30 p.m. on WFAA

From their appearances on his late-night show, Jimmy Kimmel knows many of the celebrities who will be in attendance, so he should get away with lots of jabs as he plays first-time host for the movie industry's big event at the Dolby Theatre in the heart of Hollywood. "La La Land" leads the nominees with 14 bids, followed by "Arrival" and "Moonlight" with eight each. Last year's top winners, including Leonardo DiCaprio and Brie Larson, will be back as presenters.

BIG LITTLE LIES 8 p.m., 10:30 p.m., 1 a.m. on HBO

When Ziggy (lain Armitage) asks Jane (Shailene Woodley) why she and her son moved to Monterey, she artfully evades the question in the new episode "Serious Mothering." A slight from Renata (Laura Dern) pushes every button for Madeline (Reese Witherspoon), who also is dismayed to hear her community theater production may not happen after all. Celeste (Nicole Kidman) tells Perry (Alexander Skarsgard) they need to see a counselor. Adam Scott and James Tupper also star. (N) (Part 2 of 7) CC

Winter's almost over - time to party

As winter moves into its final few weeks, some may take that as cause to party. If that's you, several shows on basic cable this week will show you how to do it up right.

One is "Dinner at Tiffani's" Sunday, Feb. 26, on Cooking Channel, as host Tiffani Thiessen throws a Mardi Gras bash that comes complete with gumbo, a hot crab and kale dip with Creole crostini and cheesy grits washed down with a Sazerac cocktail, a traditional New Orleans beverage not unlike cognac. On the guest list is Thiessen's former "Fastlane" co-star Bill Bellamy and actor Eric Close.

Immediately following on Cooking is the season finale of "Tia Mowry at Home," which finds the host in the mood to celebrate her family's new house with a menu of arugula farro salad with garlic vinaigrette, roast chicken and vegetables, zesty lemon green beans and a dirty chai cocktail. Yum!

Earlier that day on Food Network, Giada De Laurentiis marks her recent trip to Italy with her "Tuscan Barbecue Party," featuring grilled chicken involtini, buttery herbed potatoes, mushroom and grape crostini and spiked Arnold Palmers. Too bad we can't drop by.

Later in the week on Food, the Saturday, March 4, edition of "Valerie's Home Cooking" sees host Valerie Bertinelli cooking for a wine club party in which one of the guests is lactose intolerant. She prepares a menu of steak towers, polenta crackers with roasted wild mushrooms, grilled shrimp skewers with green onions and romesco sauce and white pepper cherry cookies. Who knew nondairy could be so

Over on Travel Channel on Monday, Feb. 27, "Booze Traveler" brings host Jack Maxwell to Cuba to check out the Havana haunts of Ernest Hemingway, get cleansed in the island nation's oldest religion and sip on iced mojitos and rum

Five days later and about 300 miles to the north, we can find Emeril Lagasse of Cooking's "Emeril's Florida" in Miami Beach, where he hits the world-renowned hotspot StripSteak and drops in on two new eateries that offer unique dining experiences. And in the kitchen, he cooks up petite tournedos with beurre rouge with crabmeat and braised baby kale.

If your tastes run to the more exotic, try Cooking's "Ching's Amazing Asia" on Tuesday, Feb. 28, which brings host and Taiwanese chef Ching He-Huang to cities such as Taipei and Macau to try everything from black pepper duck to Taiwanese

And if good home cooking is what you seek, the chefs on Food's "The Kitchen" have tips for weeknight meals ranging from a pierogi reuben skillet dish and lasagna soup to honey chipotle bean burritos and spicy chicken stir fry. Home chefs,

We blend the best of traditional Christian education with the best of home education into one unique model.
