RIVERDALE 8 p.m. on KDAF

The Blossoms continue to harbor secrets as Jason's funeral nears in the new "Chapter Five: Heart of Darkness," while Betty (Lili Reinhart) is stunned by what she finds in probing Jason's death. (N) HD CC

THE BLACKLIST: REDEMPTION

9 p.m. on KXAS

Several characters from the parent "Blacklist" try to make good for their misdeeds, operating where the U.S. government can't, as this spinoff premieres with "Leland Bray." Ryan Eggold carries over as Tom Keen, who joins the force that's led by Susan "Scottie" Hargrave (Famke Janssen) — his long-estranged mother — to find a missing CIA agent. Edi Gathegi and Tawny Cypress continue in their "Blacklist" parts as well, with Adrian Martinez also a co-star. (Series Premiere) (N) ID CC

BASKETS 9 p.m. on FX

We've all heard of "momagers" (see Kris Jenner or Dina Lohan for examples, however dubious), but a "Marthager" (the title of this new episode)? That's a new one, but we guess Martha (Martha Kelly) qualifies for the title, since she just booked a gig for Chip (Zach Galifianakis). (N) CC

BLINDSPOT 7 p.m. on KXAS

Different teams pursue a lethal courier for the underworld in the new episode "Draw O Caesar, Erase a Coward," with the various routes dictated by separate tattoos. Weller (Sullivan Stapleton) is partnered with Roman (Luke Mitchell), Jane (Jaimie Alexander) sides with Zapata (Audrey Esparza) and Patterson (Ashley Johnson) is matched with Reade (Rob Brown). (N) HD ©

SPEECHLESS 7:30 p.m. on WFAA

With the Oscars a few nights away, this new episode clearly is well-timed (and strategically planned) as the DiMeos stage their annual party celebrating Hollywood's big night. Maya (Minnie Driver) is unnerved by one of the guests (guest star Michaela Watkins), another special-needs-family mom who appears to be too good to be true. (N) HD @ (DVS)

THE 100 8 p.m. on KDAF

The dispute between Arkadia and Polis continues in the new episode "A Lie Guarded," as violence impacts the confusion over who's in charge. Abby (Paige Turco) launches her own mission, far removed from the fray, to come up with needed answers. (N) HD CC

How I Met How I Met How I Met How I Met

THE WALL 7 p.m. on KXAS

With the new episode "Ashle and Xandi," this competition series finishes its first season. As teammates respond to guestions correctly or not, the cash value of the answer is added to or deducted from their winnings — signaled by balls colored green (for "right") or red (for "wrong"). More than $12 million is available to the players in any given episode. Also the host, Chris Hardwick is an executive producer with LeBron James here. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC

THE MICK 7:31 p.m. on KDFW

Though Mickey (Kaitlin Olson) is excited about her new romance, others with personal interests in her life conspire to derail it in the new episode "The Baggage." Sabrina and Alba (Sofia Black-D'Elia, Carla Jimenez) team up to try to make Ben (Jack Stanton) a more responsible person. Thomas Barbusca and Scott MacArthur also star. (N) HD CC (DVS)

DC'S LEGENDS OF TOMORROW 8 p.m. on KDAF

Tracking down the Spear of Destiny becomes much more complicated for the Legends, as they learn that various pieces of it have been taken to different eras, in the new episode "Camelot/3000." First, they head into the future, but then have to revert to the past and the time of the Knights of the Round Table — to find the Spear section being kept by Stargirl (quest star Sarah Grey). Caity Lotz, Victor Garber, Brandon Routh and Dominic Purcell star. (N) HD CC

24: LEGACY 7 p.m. on KDFW

When Grimes (Charlie Hofheimer) offers details of the terrorists' possible location, Carter (Corey Hawkins) takes him on as a partner in the new episode "3:00 PM-4:00 PM." Rebecca (Miranda Otto) interrogates Nilaa (Sheila Vand) at the Donovan compound. Jimmy Smits, Teddy Sears, Anna Diop, Dan Bucatinsky and Ashley Thomas also star. (N) HD © (DVS)

AMERICAN NINJA WARRIOR

7 p.m. on KXAS

Normally debuting new NBC episodes in the summer, this competition serves up another new "All Stars" special edition, with "dream teams" of past contenders chosen by hosts Matt Iseman and Akbar Gbajabiamila and co-host Kristine Leahy. Those athletes tackle obstacles that will be familiar to viewers of the show, but there also are several "supersized" challenges that include the Endless Invisible Climb (which just sounds scary) and the Super Salmon Ladder. (N) CC (DVS)

MAN WITH A PLAN 7:30 p.m. on KTVT

Adam (Matt LeBlanc) has to adjust quickly to Kate (Grace Kaufman) reaching dating age in the new episode "Kate's First Date." (N)

Netflix's 'Chef's Table' serves up a smorgasbord of images, info and stories

If it is indeed true that one eats first with their eyes, then "Chef's Table" must leave its viewers absolutely stuffed - without them ingesting a single mouthful.

Currently streaming its third season on Netflix, the critically acclaimed food/travel series offers up sumptuous shots of delectable dishes and the international locations from which they originate while getting inside the creative minds behind them. The photography alone makes you want to travel to such exotic places as Slovenia, Argentina, Sweden, Thailand and Australia and try the cuisine there. To use a well-worn cliché, it truly is a feast for the eyes.

And then there are the chefs themselves, movers and shakers within the culinary community who have stories to tell about their creations and how they arrived at this point in their lives. For any self-respecting foodie, this should be required viewing.

"For us, the number one thing we're looking for are people who are kind of changing the game, so people who are thinking outside of the box in a lot of ways," explains Brian McGinn, the series' director and executive producer. "And we're kind of looking for innovators that are similar to kind of I think the way that Silicon Valley people think or try to think. That's what we're looking for in the chef community and everyone in that world (who) is so on top of what's going on."

This season breaks from the previous two seasons of Michelin-starred chefs and restaurants to profile those who are bringing outside-the-box thinking to everyday eating. So in Season 3, viewers are introduced to Ivan Orkin, a New Yorker who opened a ramen restaurant in Tokyo following a personal tragedy; Vladimir Mukhin, a chef at Moscow's White Rabbit, who hails from five generations of head chefs; and Jeong Kwan, a monk and self-taught chef who cooks for nuns at a South Korean

"It's Korean temple cuisine, which is really fascinating because a lot of limitations that the restaurant world kind of puts on you (don't exist in a monastery kitchen),"

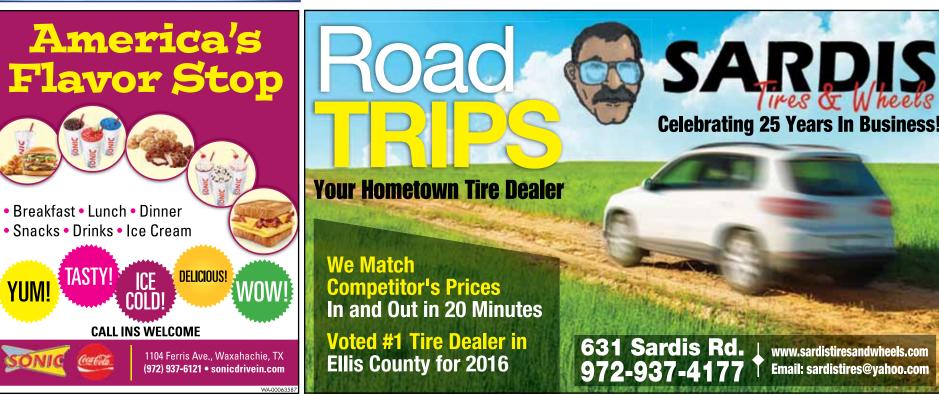

McGinn says. "... She has a chili sauce that she's fermented for years. She has soy sauce that goes back generations. And so she doesn't actually use traditional seasonings in her cuisine, which is vegetarian. She uses these incredible sauces that she's made and then she cooks exclusively using vegetables that she grows herself in a garden at the monastery, and so it's a truly different kind of cuisine than we've done on the show before."

McGinn finds these off-the-beaten path food professionals through research and relationships he has with those in the culinary community, including those who appeared on the show in the past. In three seasons of filming "A Chef's Table," he's found the folks he profiles have several traits in common.

"The throttle's at 100 percent all the time, the passion level is amazing and they're constantly questioning," McGinn says. "And I think that's the number one thing that is a through line with most successful creative people is they don't accept the status quo. They're always asking: 'Why is this like this?' 'Does it have to be like this?' 'How can I do it differently?' ... The number two thing is an incredible dedication. I think the sacrifice that many of these people have made, whether it's in their personal lives or whether it's in not pursuing other interests that they've had in their life, to be great at something you have to give up a lot. ..."

"I remember the first season, (Italian chef) Massimo Bottura's wife says - I'm paraphrasing - 'I didn't just marry a guy. I married a restaurant as well,' " McGinn continues. "And I think that kind of says it all. All these people are in some ways, even if they have families, they're married to their restaurants and to their work."
