SUPERSTORE 7 p.m. on KXAS

Things run hot and cold — in the most literal sense — for the Cloud 9 employees in the new episode "Super Hot Store." A bitter day temperature-wise has them grateful for the warmth in the store, until the thermostat breaks and drives the degrees up considerably. Amy and Jonah (America Ferrera, Ben Feldman) end up pitted against the back warehouse workers. Glenn (Mark McKinney) becomes determined to repair the heater. Nichole Bloom also stars. MOM

Devastated by her breakup with Adam (William Fichtner), Bonnie (Allison Janney) tests evervone's patience with her very verbal mourning in the new episode "Roast Chicken and a Funny Story." Eventually, Christy (Anna Faris) has had enough, and she asks Adam to consider reuniting with Bonnie. Mimi Kennedy, Jaime Pressly and Beth Hall also star. (N) HD CC

BLINDSPOT 7 p.m. on KXAS

Guest star Ennis Esmer returns as Rich Dotcom in the new episode "Borrow or Rob," as Jane (Jaimie Alexander) and the team need his help to infiltrate a secret society linked to a college — and with plans that aren't as innocent as that setting might suggest. Dotcom has an "in " since he's an alumnus of the school. Sullivan Stapleton also stars.

DOUBT 9 p.m. on KTVT

Katherine Heigl ("Grey's Anatomy," "State of Affairs") returns to series work with this new drama, casting her as an attorney who flirts — in more ways than one — with the status of her career. She takes a very personal interest in her latest client (Steven Pasquale, "The Good Wife"), a pediatric surgeon suspected of the murder of his girl-friend years earlier. Laverne Cox ("Orange Is the New Black"), Dule Hill and Elliott Gould also star in this "Pilot." (Series Premiere) (N) HD ©

LEGION 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12:30 a.m. on FX

The Marvel Comics-inspired story continues to unfold in the new episode "Chapter 2" as David Haller (Dan Stevens), now aware that he's probably not mentally ill, starts to reflect on what he can remember about his past, assisted by some new friends. Aubrey Plaza, Mackenzie Gray, Bill Irwin, Katie Aselton and Rachel Keller also star. (N) CC

THE CHALLENGE WITHIN

7 p.m. on KDAF

The parent CW network shares the finale of this docudrama series that has been running on the CW Seed digital service, tracing the experiences of several people competing in the Tough Mudder endurance race — a huge test of physical and psychological stamina. The program has been following the individuals' personal lives as well as their performances in the competition, and this conclusion reveals the various ways in which their efforts have paid off. (N) ID ©

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE 8 p.m. on KERA

Barak Goodman, who wrote and directed this series' recent "Oklahoma City" documentary, examines one of the events that led to that study in the new episode "Ruby Ridge." It recalls the 1992 standoff between white separatist Randy Weaver and federal agents in the mountains of Northern Idaho, and a rare — and emotional — interview with Weaver's daughter Sara is among the program's elements. Law enforcers who were on the scene also share recollections. (N)

CHICAGO FIRE 9 p.m. on KXAS

Chief Boden (Eamonn Walker) invites trouble when he supersedes Chief Anderson (guest star Michael Hanrahan) in deciding how to handle the aftermath of an accident in the new episode "Trading in Scuttlebutt." The rest of House 51 also becomes subject to Anderson's vengeful actions. Severide and Brett (Taylor Kinney, Kara Killmer) both consider life changes. Charlotte Sullivan ("Rookie Blue") continues her guest role. David Eigenberg also stars. (N)

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 p.m.,10:50 p.m. on HBO

Despite mixed reviews, this 2016 action comedy still blew the roof off the box-office, thanks to the potent chemistry between Dwayne Johnson and comedy superstar Kevin Hart, cast here as, respectively, a rogue CIA agent and his former classmate, who team up to save the world from a terrorist. Aaron Paul, Amy Ryan and Jason Bateman co-star, plus watch for Melissa McCarthy in an uncredited cameo. Ike Barinholtz ("The Mindy Project") is among the screenplay co-writers. (Premiere) ©

FROM STRAIGHT A'S TO XXX

11:02 p.m. on LIFE

This TV movie's title may sound like a tongue-in-cheek thriller, but it's based on a real-life story. Faced with a staggering tuition bill, Miriam Weeks, a freshman at North Carolina's Duke University, decides to earn cash as an erotic actress under the name Belle Knox. After a male classmate at the conservative Southern school recognizes and outs her, however, Miriam is subjected to slut-shaming, death threats and unwanted national media attention. Haley Pullos, Judd Nelson and Sasha Clements also star. ©©

SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE

10:29 p.m. on KXAS

In playing a certain business-man-turned-politician, Alec Baldwin surely has been no stranger to this show lately ... but even before that run, he had been a guest host many times. He scores his 17th turn in that role with this new episode, and anyone should be able to guess that some Washington, D.C.-oriented humor will be on the menu here. Music is supplied by Ed Sheeran, whose singles "Shape of You" and "Castle on the Hill" are both on the charts. (N)

SUPERGIRL 7 p.m. on KDAF

Lena Luthor (guest star Katie McGrath) ends up blamed for the escape of Metallo (guest star Frederick Schmidt) — who takes Lillian Luthor (guest star Brenda Strong) with him — and is arrested in the new episode "Luthors." Kara (Melissa Benoist) is adamant that Lena is innocent and sets out to prove it. Maggie (Floriana Lima) meets Alex's (Chyler Leigh) associates. Jeremy Jordan and David Harewood also star. (N) HD CC

THE NEW CELEBRITY APPRENTICE 8 p.m. on KXAS

The biggest moment of the show's season arrives as the winner is crowned in the new episode "I Don't Have Time for Anyone's Ego Except My Own," with the two finalists going all-out — which means staging a party and a variety performance, with assistance from others who have appeared on this series recently. Caitlyn Jenner is among the guests as the occasion also aims to benefit charities, with Arnold Schwarzenegger ultimately having to make a major decision. (Season Finale) (N)

THE 59TH ANNUAL GRAMMY AWARDS 7 p.m. on KTVT

As the master of "Carpool Karaoke" on his late-night show, James Corden is an appropriate choice to host the recording industry's top annual night of musical recognition and celebration. Originating from Los Angeles' Staples Center, the event is slated to offer performances by Adele, Bruno Mars, John Legend, Metallica, Carrie Underwood and Keith Urban. Beyonce is the leader among the nominees with nine bids, while Drake, Rihanna and Kanye West have eight each. (N) HD (Live) CC

GIRLS

9 p.m., 11:30 p.m., 1:45 a.m. on HBO

The Emmy-winning (if wildly polarizing) comedy series opens its sixth and final season with "All I Ever Wanted," a new episode that finds Hannah (Lena Dunham) enjoying a new peak in career success. When she accepts an assignment to write a story on a female surf camp in the Hamptons, she runs into an uncomplicated ski instructor (guest star Riz Ahmed, "The Night Of"). Elsewhere, Marnie (Allison Williams) firmly tells Ray (Alex Karpovsky) he needs to spend more time at his place. (Season Premiere) (N) CC

LAST WEEK TONIGHT WITH JOHN OLIVER

10 p.m., 12:15 a.m. on HBO

When host John Oliver closed out Season 3 of his Emmy-winning series on Nov. 13, 2016, he — along with many other Americans — was still trying to process the stunning Nov. 8 presidential election upset, which saw Donald Trump declared the victor. Oliver has had several weeks to reflect on those events as he opens Season 4 tonight by reviewing a "last week" that marked the first week of Trump's presidency. He'll probably have quite a bit to say. (Season Premiere) (N) CC

'Vinny & Ma' take a road trip of discovery on Cooking Channel

A lot of adult children struggle to get their parents out of the house. Vinny Guadagnino created a TV show that did

In his Tuesday Cooking Channel food and travel series "Vinny & Ma Eat America," the former "Jersey Shore" star and his mom, Paola, traverse the country, stopping in locales such as San Francisco, Colorado, New Orleans and Nashville to try new foods and experiences and have a few laughs along the way.

The twist is that while Vinny is game for just about anything, Paolo has rarely set foot outside of her adopted homeland of Staten Island since emigrating there from Sicily at the age of 10, and she isn't all that thrilled about trying new things. So dishes like sushi, worm tacos and Rocky Mountain oysters – aka deep-fried bull testicles – would leave her at loose ends. Justifiably so, one might say.

"It shows a fun way of getting her out there, getting her to try new things, which she hates," the younger Guadagnino explains. "But also each episode, we kind of get her in the kitchen because that's where she shines and that's where she thrives. So we go into all these different kitchens across the country and they do like a little lesson and teach us, and my mom actually teaches them a thing

And Mom can cook. Vinny recalls being well-stocked with food and goodies as a child even though his family didn't have a lot of money. Her lovingly made Italian meals gave him a lifelong love of and appreciation for food.

Their relationship is clearly what makes the series go and it's what viewers responded to when Vinny and Paola appeared together on an episode of Food Channel's "The Great Food Truck Race" in September.

> "I got all these messages from people that were like, 'Oh my God, thank you. My mom passed away and this really reminded me of her and brought back memories," he says. "And every time, all my tweets and stuff were all like, 'I feel like this is with my mom,' 'I feel like this,' whatever.

"So I had no idea," he continues, "I didn't think of that when I was watching the show, that people were going to actually feel like they were in the car with us and having these experiences with their own family. And that makes it extra-cool because then it's just more than about the food."

What book are you currently reading?

"I'm re-reading 'The Power of Now' by Eckhart Tolle."

What did you have for dinner last night?

"Yesterday was Sunday so that was my cheat meal because I usually eat healthy during the week. I had margarita pizza and my mom's fried chicken cutlets. ... It was great."

What is your next project?

"My next project is this - 'Vinny & Ma Eat America.' We hope to see how the premiere does. Hopefully we can go out there and film more episodes. But I'm also coming out with my podcast and stand-up comedy and I do improv
