Mateo (Nico Santos) is eager to transfer to one of the signature stores in the Cloud 9 chain, but that will require resolution of his current status as an undocumented alien in the new episode "Mateo's Last Day." As Jonah and Cheyenne (Ben Feldman, Nichole Bloom) try to give Mateo legal advice, Amy (America Ferrera) comes to the rescue when Glenn (Mark McKinney) is tormented by an Internet troll. Elsewhere, Dina and Garrett (Lauren Ash, Colton Dunn) have a bone to pick with corporate. (N) HD CC (DVS)

BASKETS

9 p.m., 10 p.m., 1 a.m. on FX

This defiantly nutty and offthe-wall comedy series sends in the clowns as it rings down the curtain on Season 2 with a finale called "Circus." As usual, we're not entirely sure what to make of the episode summary, which advises that Christine (Louie Anderson) turns to Arby (for comfort, one assumes), after Chip (Zach Galifianakis) joins the Russians. Given current political events, we're not going near that last part in terms of any conjecture. (Season Finale) (N) CC

THE ORIGINALS 7 p.m. on KDAF

With "The Vampire Diaries" over, its spinoff series returns to begin Season 4 with "Gather Up the Killers." The saga jumps far ahead from where it left off, resuming well into the reign of Marcel (Charles Michael Davis), whose apparent vanquishing of Klaus (Joseph Morgan) has made him the ruler of New Orleans' vampires. However, a threat from newcomers forces him to seek help. Hayley (Phoebe Tonkin) may be the key to preventing a larger crisis. (Season Premiere) (N) CC

SLEEPY HOLLOW 8:01 p.m. on KDFW

The vault gets an apparent intruder in the new episode "The Way of the Gun," but as Crane (Tom Mison) and the team learn more about who she is, they realize she ultimately might be valuable to them. Alex (Rachel Melvin) has reason to get a grip on her emotions. Kamar de los Reyes continues his guest role. Janina Gavankar, Lyndie Greenwood, Jeremy Davies and Oona Yaffe also star. (N)

SXSW COMEDY WITH NATASHA LEGGERO PART 2 9 p.m. on SHOW

The first part of this two-part special aired way back last summer, but the conclusion makes its debut tonight, as "Another Period" star and co-creator Natasha Leggero welcomes a lineup of top-flight comedy talents that include Emo Phillips, Sean Patton, lan Edwards, Kurt Braunohler and Eliza Skinner to the massively popular festival in Austin, Texas. SHOTS FIRED 7 p.m. on KDFW

A North Carolina town is rocked by shootings that may have been racially motivated in this new, clearly timely limited-run drama series from filmmaking spouses Gina Prince-Bythewood and Reggie Rock Bythewood. Sanaa Lathan and Stephan James play investigators for the Department of Justice who come to suspect the state's governor (Helen Hunt) isn't telling all she knows. Richard Dreyfuss, Stephen Moyer and Tristan Wilds also are in the ensemble cast. (Series Premiere) (N) HD CC (DVS)

EMPIRE

8 p.m. on KDFW

Lucious (Terrence Howard) puts everyone on notice as he announces his new music project called Inferno as this series returns for its spring premiere with "Sound & Fury." That power play only makes Cookie (Taraji P. Henson) double down on her determination to knock her ex off his throne for good. Elsewhere, while in rehab, Jamal (Jessie Smollett) becomes friends with musician and fellow patient Tory Ash (guest star Rumer Willis), and Andre (Trai Byers) continues with his own plan to take over Empire. NEW GIRL 7 p.m. on KDFW

Jess (Zooey Deschanel) uses her time taking care of her dad (guest star Rob Reiner) in Portland as an excuse to avoid thinking about her feelings for Nick (Jake Johnson) in the new "Misery. Nick, meanwhile, panics at the realization he and Reagan (guest star Megan Fox) don't really know each other while attending a work party with her. Elsewhere, Aly (guest star Nasim Pedrad) nervously prepares to meet Winston's (Lamorne Morris) terrifying mother (guest star Anna Maria Horsford). (N) HD CC (DVS)

THE MICK 7:31 p.m. on KDFW

When it starts to appear that Chip (Thomas Barbusca) is getting scammed by a girl he met online, Mickey (Katilin Olsen) gives the boy a crash course in how to be a wolf, not a sheep, in life. Meanwhile, Sabrina (Sofia Black-D'Elia) plans to hold an intervention when she starts worrying that her boyfriend (guest star Andy Favreau) is picking up some of Jimmy's (Scott MacArthur) less admirable habits in the new episode "The Wolf." Carla Jimenez also stars. (N) CC (DVS)

Amanda Clayton, Heather Hemmens, Zulay Henao and April Parker-Jones also star. (Season Premiere) (N)

His relief is shortlived, however, as grief from the accident sends his mother, Briana (Bree Williamson, "Chicago Fire") into an alcoholic spiral, setting in motion a series of grim events. Paul Popowich ("Rogue") also stars in this 2016 thriller. (Premiere) CC

DANCING WITH THE STARS 7 p.m. on WFAA

The season 24 premiere of this perennial fan favorite is also its 400th episode, and this season's roster of celebrity performers is as diverse as ever. Olympic gold medalist Simone Biles, whose teammate Laurie Hernandez danced off with the trophy last season, is among the contenders, along with another past Olympian, figure skater Nancy Kerrigan. Other stars include former "Glee" star Heather Morris, ageless Spanish music star Charo and World Series champ David Ross, the show's first baseball star. (Season Premiere) (N) HD (Live) CC

JANE THE VIRGIN 8 p.m. on KDAF

Seeking to devote more time to Mateo, Jane (Gina Rodriguez) decides to run for Room Mom against Petra (Yael Grobglas), a paragon of motherhood, in the new "Chapter Fifty-Eight." Things don't go as smoothly as Alba (Ivonne Coll) had hoped when she recruits Jane and Xo (Andrea Navedo) to help her impress her crush. Elsewhere, a sly Rogelio (Jaime Camil) pumps Mateo for information on Xo's relationship with Bruce (guest star Ricardo Chavira). Justin Baldoni also stars. (N)

Cooking with your laptop – the YouTube way

Over the years, YouTube has become the place to go for how-to information on anything from appliance repair and home construction to investing in the stock market and even piloting a blimp

But did you know you could use it to learn how to whip up some pretty impressive meals, too? Yes, chefs and cooks of all backgrounds and levels of experience and accomplishment regularly post their DIY videos there, just waiting for you to check them out and even try your hand. So if you're at a loss as to what to make for dinner tonight - or you simply want to wow your friends and family with your prowess in the kitchen – here are a few food-oriented web series worth considering.

"Laura in the Kitchen": Laura Vitale is probably one of the most famous chefs on YouTube, logging nearly 1,200 videos on the site since 2010 and even branching out into her own Cooking Channel series "Simply Laura." Here, the focus is on Italian cuisine as she walks viewers through the preparation of everything from yogurt zeppoles and cod arrabbiata to chicken cordon bleu pizza and grilled scallops on the half shell. She even does requests.

"My Cupcake Addiction": Bakers will want to check out this YouTube mainstay hosted by Aussie Elise Strachan, who offers up

"Kawaii Sweet World": Teen baker Rachel Fong hosts this informative series from the basement of her parents' Northern California home, in which she walks viewers through recipes she herself came up with. "Kawaii" in Japanese means "cute," and that reflects in confections such as Disney Tsum Tsum cake pops, no-bake unicorn cheesecake and gingerbread girl cake.

"ChefSteps": A cadre of James Beard Awardwinning chefs not only demonstrate modern culinary concepts and recipes but they also explain how and why they work. From exotica such as lorighitta (braided pasta) and kouignamann (a croissant-like pastry) to how-tos on the more mundane dishes like chicken or chuck roast, these folks aim to make viewers better in the kitchen and, as their motto says, "cook smarter."

"Cooking With Dog": No, it's not what you think. A mysterious and unnamed Japanese chef prepares a range of dishes popular in Japan while canine host Francis narrates the recipes step by step in English. Bento boxes, sweet-and-sour meatballs, gyoza (fried dumplings) and yakisoba noodles are among the menu items prepared and consumed, no doubt followed by a belly rub and nice walk.
