Farmers' Market seeks vendors

The Penn Yan Farmers' Market (also known as the Yates County Cooperative Farm and Craft Market) is currently organizing for our 41st year in 2017. The annual meeting will be on April 5, and the market is expected to open in late May. The Penn Yan Market is the longest running market in this area, and known for the sense of community among both vendors and customers. Most of last year's vendors intend to return, and there are new vendors expected; but there's still room for more. Vendors can join at any time of year, but most like to plan ahead. Those interested should contact the market president, Rivka Davis, 607-243-5234, or the market manager, Howard Hoover, 315-536-3192. All items must be grown or made in Yates County or an adjacent county. The market is held Saturday mornings in downtown Penn Yan, on the sidewalk of Main Street between Elm and Jacob Streets.

Organizers of the 2017 Fair-y Tail Festival report 144 children and 77 parents/adults attended the March 18 event where 16 agencies and organizations shared information and had fun with crafts and games.
