GRIMM 7 p.m. on KXAS

The dark prophecy appears to be nearing fulfillment when a sinister force arrives in Portland with its eyes set on Diana (Hannah R. Loyd) in the new episode "Zerstorrer Shrugged." Trying to protect her, Nick (David Giuntoli), along with Captain Renard and Adalind (Sasha Roiz, Claire Coffee), returns to the scene of his first investigation as a Grimm. Meanwhile, Monroe, Eve and Rosalee (Silas Weir Mitchell, Bitsie Tulloch, Bree Turner) make a discovery that uncovers the origins of the mysteri-ous stick. (N) HD CC (DVS)

SLEEPY HOLLOW 8:01 p.m. on KDFW

Former series regular John Noble returns in a guest appearance as Henry Parrish, Ichabod's (Tom Mison) son (don't ask, it's really complicated) in the new episode "Tomorrow," wherein the team learns more about Lara (guest star Seychelle Gabriel) and gets a harrowing glimpse into the horrific dystopian world that will come to pass if Dreyfuss (Jeremy Davies) rises to power. Only these heroes stand in the way of the insane billionaire, but they may be too late. Janina Gavankar and Lyndie Greenwood also star. (N) HD CC (DVS)

BORN TO BE BLUE 9 p.m. on SHOW

In the late 1960s, jazz trumpeter Chet Baker (Ethan Hawke) begins a romance with an actress (Carmen Ejogo) while trying to play himself in a film about his earlier, heroin-addicted years. Hawke and the film, which was written, produced and directed by Robert Budreau, got generally favorable reviews, although it's fairly heavily fictionalized and only partly based on Baker's life and career. Callum Keith Rennie, Stephen McHattie and Janet-Laine Green also star in this 2015 feature. (Premiere) CC

Waxahachie Daily Light

WEDNESDAY Prime Time

March 29, 2017

tonight's

SHOTS FIRED 7 p.m. on KDFW

Deputy Beck (Mack Wilds) comes under a different sort of fire because of an incriminating video in the new "Hour Two: Betrayal of Trust," making Ashe and Preston's (Sanaa Lathan, Stephan James) mission that much more of a challenge. CC (DVS)

IMAGINARY MARY 7:30 p.m. on WFAA

The computer-animated title character in this otherwise live-action sitcom — getting a "preview" premiere here with its "Pilot" - offers advice to the public-relations executive (Jenna Elfman) who, as a child, invented her. The woman is in a romance with a single dad (Stephen Schneider), and Mary pops up to counsel her. (N)

DUCK DYNASTY 8 p.m., 12:03 a.m. on AETV

This weekly chronicle of life among the sprawling Robertson clan in West Monroe, La., turned into a flagship series for A&E, although not without occasional bouts of controversy related to patriarch Phil Robertson's outspoken religious and political viewpoints. The show ends its long run tonight at the end of its 11th season with a new episode called, fittingly enough, "End of an Era." (Series Finale) (N) 📼

DEAD RECKONING: WAR & JUSTICE 7 p.m. on KERA

The post-World War II history of war crimes is examined in this new special, divided into three one-hour segments detailing the pursuit of those who committed genocide and other mass felonies. The opening installment, "The General's Ghost," focuses on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's campaign against a Japanese counterpart, Tomoyuki Yamashita — sentenced to death despite a lack of evidence that he had anything to do with such atrocities in the Philippines. (Series Premiere) (N) 🔟 🚾 (DVS)

BONES

8:01 p.m. on KDFW

One of Fox's longest-lasting series bids farewell as "The Final Chapter: The End in the End" ---directed by series co-star David Boreanaz - really does mark the end of this show. The rest of the team must seek elusive, lethal Mark Kovac (guest star Gerard Celasco) without Brennan (Emily Deschanel), but she eventually rejoins Booth (Boreanaz) for what's destined to be the final showdown. TJ Thyne, Michaela Conlin, Tamara Taylor and John Boyd also star. (Series Finale) (N) HD CC (DVS)

THE AMERICANS 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12 a.m.

on FX

Philip and Elizabeth (Matthew Rhys, Keri Russell) have some major reservations about their new assignment in the new episode "What's the Matter With Kansas?," and a specter from out of Philip's past creates some unexpected dangers. Meanwhile, at the FBI, Stan (Noah Emmerich) makes a shocking move that could utterly derail his career. (N) 🖸

SATURDAY Prime Time

March 25 2017

RANSOM 7 p.m. on KTVT

While engrossed in playing a hot new smartphone game, a band of five teenagers is lured into a deadly trap in a presumably empty old structure in France in a new episode called "The Castle.' In short order Eric (Luke Roberts) and the other members on his team are summoned to negotiate the release of the captives. Camille Langer, Boyd Ferguson, Britta Meier, Simon Holman and Logan Smythe guest star. Sarah Green and Brandon Jay McLaren also star. (N) 🖽 🖸

INDEPENDENCE DAY: RESURGENCE 7 p.m. on HBO

Its title notwithstanding, this 2016 sequel to the 1996 blockbuster didn't exactly trigger a resurgence of interest on the part of fans with its plot about those nasty extraterrestrials staging a lethal comeback on the 20th anniversary of their initial invasion. Liam Hemsworth, Jeff Goldblum and Bill Pullman head the international ensemble of the film, which earned back its production costs but fell far short of the worldwide gross racked up by the original. (Premiere) CC

AMERICAN JIHAD 8 p.m., 10:30 p.m. on SHOW

Filmmakers Alison Ellwood and Sarah Dowland explore the troubling issue of homegrown Jihadism, focusing particularly on how young men are radicalized to commit violent acts of terrorism and what can be done to prevent it. The compelling new documentary includes the perspectives of former Jihadists and those deeply affected by this practice, and also looks at the impact of Anwar al-Awlaki, a U.S. citizen identified by the CIA as a leader of al-Qaeda and a resourceful recruiter of young Americans.

tonight's

SUPERGIRL 7 p.m. on KDAF

Filmmaker Kevin Smith ("Clerks") has dabbled in directing The CW's superhero series, and he does so again with the new episode "Distant Sun," which finds Supergirl (Melissa Benoist) a wanted woman and not in a good way - as aliens invade National City to claim the bounty issued for her. President Marsdin (recurring guest star Lynda Carter) has plans for Hank (David Hare-wood). Maggie's (Floriana Lima) ex-girlfriend (guest star Hayley Sales) visits. (N) IID CC

JANE THE VIRGIN 8 p.m. on KDAF

Thanks to their own problems, Rafael and Petra (Justin Baldoni, Yael Grobglas) prove not to be the most ideal advisers to help Jane (Gina Ro-driguez) start dating again in the new "Chapter Fifty-Nine." In Petra's case, that means having worries about Chuck's (guest star Johnny Mesner) conversations with the police. Alba (Ivonne Coll) adopts others' recommendations for her to stay independent. Rogelio (Jaime Camil) hits new hurdles with the lawsuit. (N) ID IC

MAKING HISTORY 7:30 p.m. on KDFW

The reason for venturing to the 1990s is more personal than historical for the time travelers in the new episode "Chadwick's Angels." The mission is to allow Dan (Adam Pally) to complete his unfinished goal of consuming a huge ice cream sundae appropriately known as the "Bellybuster." His plans hit a snag when he encounters a bully again. Vicki Lewis ("News-Radio") guest stars. Leighton Meester and Yassir Lester also star. (N) HD CC (DVS)

TO WALK INVISIBLE: THE BRONTË SISTERS 8 p.m. on KERA

Some of literature's all-time classics, including "Jane Eyre" and "Wuthering Heights," are among the credits of the siblings whose relationships are dramatized in this new "Masterpiece" offering by writer-director Sally Wainwright. Finn Atkins, Chloe Pirrie and Charlie Murphy respectively play Charlotte, Emily and Anne, whose conservative lives made the sensational content of their books (which they devised under male pseudonyms) surprising. (Premiere)

SHADES OF BLUE 9 p.m. on KXAS

Harlee (Jennifer Lopez) undertakes her own investigation of Julia Ayres (guest star Anna Gunn), since Stahl (Warren Kole) is fiercely determined to bust the politician, in the new episode "Daddy's Girl." Wozniak's (Ray Liotta) deep ties to Ayres are explained as a drug case forces him to revisit the circumstances of his daughter's death. Drea de Matteo, Dayo Okeniyi, Vincent Laresca, Hampton Fluker and Sarah Jeffery also star. (N) (HDTV SAP) CC tasty tv BY GEORGE DICKIE Eddie Jackson's love of food spawns a booming second career

In the annals of athletes who have found a second career well away from the field of play, Eddie Jackson is in a league of his own.

A familiar Food Network face since 2015, the former defensive back for three NFL teams in the mid-2000s has been a winner in Season 11 of "Food Network Star," the host of "BBQ Blitz" and "Kids BBQ Championship" and now a judge on "Chopped: Star Power Tournament," in which actors, athletes, comedians and Internet performers compete for charity. It premieres Tuesday, March 28.

"The thing about an athlete," Jackson says of the show's ex-jocks, "is that they always have that competitive edge. You know, they want to win no matter what, so they're going to pull out all the stops to get that victory, even if it is for charity or whatever the case may be. But at the end of the day, a true athlete is always trying to get the W."

In addition to competition, one could say a love of food, especially barbecue, is deeply ingrained in Jackson's personality. The 36-year-old native of Plano, Texas, has been grilling since he was a child, when his dad handed him some tongs one day and showed him the ropes.

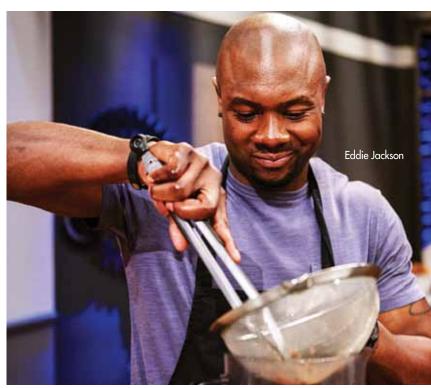

After his playing days ended in 2008, Jackson needed a second career, but didn't have to look too far for inspiration. He started a line of food trucks in his home burg of Cypress, Texas, and is in the process of opening a food truck park and beer garden. Though he's expanded his business to include four trucks and now the park, he can still be seen driving around the Houston suburb and grilling up meats for his customers.

"I'm very busy so anytime I can get back on a truck – because that's how I started – I'm always excited about that ..." Jackson says. "I get recognized a lot more now than I did when I was playing professional football. You know, when you're playing football you have a helmet on pretty much the majority of the time, nobody recognizes you. It's not like the NBA. But now that I'm on TV, people recognize my face. I went to the gym this morning and a lady said, 'Hey, you're the guy from Food Network.' So you get that a lot."

What book are you currently reading? "Right now I'm reading a book called 'Run Fast, Eat Slow' and it's by Shalane Flanagan and Elise Kopecky. And basically what it is is just she's a marathon runner and she has a friend who's a chef and they came up with this cookbook dedicated to athletes, not professional athletes but athletes in general. So it's just a book that's filled with healthy recipes, very bright and vibrant and I'm so into it right now."

What did you have for dinner last night?

"Yesterday was Sunday and Sunday is my slow-cooker day, so I made braised oxtails with polenta vesterday. It was delicious (laughs)."

What is your next project?

"The next project that I will definitely be working on is my food truck park and beer garden. And honestly, I'm just looking forward to Season 2 of 'Kids BBQ Championship' coming out. We added more episodes this year so I'm really looking forward to everybody seeing the new product. It's really exciting."
