Cheyenne and Bo (Nichole Bloom, guest star Johnny Pemberton) head for the altar in the new episode "Cheyenne's Wedding," but the ceremony hardly is traditional — especially given the unforeseen complications that arise. Various other relationships shift in the course of the event, one example being the status of Amy and Jonah (America Ferrera, Ben Feldman), and another involving Mateo and Jeff (Nico Santos, guest star Michael Bunin). "Survival of the Fittest" is an appropriate title for the competition's season finale, with the teams facing an elimination challenge that will reduce the number of remaining duos from three to two before the hour is very old. Then, the participants still on hand reflect on the experiences they've had in the contest as they prepare to go into the final showdown. Hannah Simone ("New Girl") is the host. ### ROSEWOOD 7 p.m. on KDFW

The probe of a schoolteacher's death leads Rosewood and Villa (Morris Chestnut, Jaina Lee Ortiz) to human traffickers in the new episode "Amparo & the American Dream." The detectives' relationship is impacted by something they learn about Slade (Eddie Cibrian). Sam Huntington continues his guest role. Lorraine Toussaint, Gabrielle Dennis, Anna Konkle and Domenick Lombardozzi also star. (N) HD CC (DVS)

HAWAII FIVE-0 8 p.m. on KTVT

First shown as the 53rd anniversary of the tragedy neared, "Elua la ma Nowemapa" (Hawaiian for "Two Days in November") incorporates the assassination of John F. Kennedy into its plot. A conspiracy theorist purports that members of the then-chief executive's Cabinet were in on the plot, prompting McGarrett (Alex O'Loughlin) and his team to delve into history and launch a new probe. Andrew Lawrence and Matt Battaglia guest star. Scott Caan also stars.

BLUE BLOODS 9 p.m. on KTVT

Formerly Danny's (Donnie Wahlberg) boss and now one of Frank's (Tom Selleck) righthand men, Lt. Gormley (Robert Clohessy) becomes a crime victim himself in "Mob Rules." After Gormley is attacked by a group outside his home, Erin's (Bridget Moynahan) investigator Anthony (Steve Schirripa) - who also has ties to that neighborhood — probes the situation. Tony Award winner Cady Huffman ("The Producers") guest stars as Gormley's wife. HD CC (DVS)

GREAT NEWS 8 p.m. on KXAS

Executive-produced by "30 Rock" veterans Tracey Wigfield (also the creator here), Tina Fey and Robert Carlock, this new sitcom is both another television-workplace saga and a mother-daughter tale. The "Pilot" presents Briga Heelan ("Ground Floor") as a news producer alarmed that her new intern is - her mom (Andrea Martin, "SCTV"). John Michael Higgins and Nicole Richie co-star as program co-hosts, with Horatio Sanz also featured. Another episode follows. (Series Premiere) (N) HD CC

IZOMBIE 8 p.m. on KDAF

Liv's (Rose McIver) lips are looser than usual in the new episode "Wag the Tongue Slowly," after her consuming of the brain of a slain office gossip makes her unusually talkative — to Clive's (Malcolm Goodwin) eventual despair. Blaine and Peyton's (David Anders, Aly Michalka) relationship develops as Ravi (Rahul Kohli) continues his medical efforts. Major (Robert Buckley) gets closer to making a promise come true. (N)

COSPLAY MELEE 9 p.m., 3:30 a.m. on SYFY

Season 1 ends with a finale called "Animelee," which challenges its competitors to create an original character inspired by their favorite anime. Sounds almost too simple, right? But as a rule, handing such unfettered freedom to run wild in a context they're passionate about winds up leaving the players paralyzed by all their creative options. We're betting you'll see some of those here, along with other cosplayers who excitedly rise to the challenge and deliver dazzling results. (Season Finale) (N) CC

AMERICAN HOUSEWIFE 7 p.m. on WFAA

Katie (Katy Mixon) decides to show everyone else in the family how much they need her in "Bag Lady," as their complaints about her meddling prompt her to back off completely. However, they appear to do fine without her involvement — giving her more time to seek justice when she believes she was sold faulty trash bags. Larry Joe Campbell ("According to Jim") guest stars. Diedrich Bader and Meg Donnelly also star. Another episode follows.

THE IMMORTAL LIFE OF HENRIETTA LACKS

7 p.m., 10:45 p.m. on HBO

Director George C. Wolfe ("Angels in America") also adapted Rebecca Skloot's acclaimed nonfiction book for this new TV movie chronicling the story of 1950s cervical cancer patient Henrietta Lacks, whose cancer cells would play a critical role in changing the course of modern treatment for the disease. Oprah Winfrey stars as Lacks' daughter Deborah, and "Hamilton" original cast member Renee Elise Goldsberry plays Henrietta in flashbacks. Rose Byrne co-stars as author Skloot; Courtney B. Vance and Leslie Uggams also co-star. (Premiere) CC

THE SON

8 p.m., 9 p.m., 1 a.m. on AMC

In a flashback to 1849, young Eli (Jacob Lofland) faces a life-or-death test of survival that will determine his fitness to be a warrior in the new episode "Death Song." Returning to 1915, the adult Eli (Pierce Brosnan) and the rest of the McCullough clan set into motion a dangerous plan to take the fight to their enemy. Zahn McClarnon, Tatanka Means and Paola Nunes also star. (N) ©

GOTHAM 7 p.m. on KDFW

Riddle me this: The series returns for the home stretch of its third season with the new episode "Heroes Rise: How the Riddler Got His Name." That villainous alias finally is assumed by Nygma (Cory Michael Smith) as he goes off on his own, apart from Penguin (Robin Lord Taylor), and causes problems for Bullock and Lucius Fox (Donal Logue, Chris Chalk). Gordon (Ben McKenzie) learns troubling information about his father's fate. James Remar guest stars. (N) HD CC (DVS)

BATES MOTEL 10:36 p.m., 2 a.m. on AETV

After five chilling seasons, this masterfully written and acted prequel to Alfred Hitchcock's "Psycho" comes to a close with a series finale called "The Cord," doubtless a reference to the dysfunctional bond between Norman Bates (Freddie Highmore) and his mother, Norma (Vera Farmiga). A&E is revealing almost nothing about this hour apart from a terse four-word story line: "Norman Bates comes home." Even so, there's a good chance you may sleep a little more fitfully after watching this. CC

NASCAR RACING 1 p.m. on KDFW

The half-mile track at Bristol Motor Speedway in Tennessee may be small but remains a favorite among auto racing fans. The high-banking oval offers some of the best spectator viewing in any racing venue and will be at full throttle for the Food City 500. He's now retired, but Carl Edwards took two of the last three spring races here with Matt Kenseth taking the 2015 race. That's two in a row for Joe Gibbs Racing. (N) (Live) CC

FEUD: BETTE AND JOAN

10:21 p.m., 12:45 a.m. on FX

Season 1 of this critically acclaimed — and let's admit, insanely entertaining — anthology series wraps with "You Mean All This Time We Could Have Been Friends?," a poignant episode that echoes one of Baby Jane Hudson's lines for its title. Before fadeout, Joan (Jessica Lange) accepts a leading role on a new film despite increasingly serious health issues. Meanwhile, faced with a new rival, Bette (Susan Sarandon) reflects on the manufactured feud into which she and Joan allowed others to thrust them. CC

MARY KILLS PEOPLE 9:02 p.m., 10:02 p.m., 1:04 a.m., 2:04 a.m. on LIFE

Dr. Mary Harris (Caroline Dhavernas, "Hannibal"), an emergency room physician, is forced to walk a tricky ethical line between what she knows is morally right and what she also knows is illegal as she moonlights covertly as an angel of death, offering assistance to suffering patients who want to end their lives on their own terms. Jay Ryan ('Beauty and the Beast"), Richard Short ("Vinyl"), Lyriq Bent ("Shoot the Messenger") and Greg Bryk ("Bitten") also star in this new drama series. (Series Premiere) (N) © (DVS)

Jack Maxwell drinks it all in on Travel Channel's 'Booze Traveler: Best Bars'

Everyone has their own idea of what makes a great bar. It could be the inviting atmosphere, the triple-digit selection of beer, the quirky but friendly clientele or maybe a soothing waterfront location. Or something else. Or none of the above.

Whatever the case, Jack Maxwell goes on a cross-country pub crawl to get a handle on the question of great bars and what makes them so in his new Travel Channel series "Booze Traveler: Best Bars," premiering Monday, April 24.

"That's so subjective," he says, "but you look at top-10 lists, we talk to people, we go online, we talk to people in that city because a lot of things encompass a best bar, of course. But it's just like flavors of ice cream. People will have their favorites."

Each of the 12 half-hour episodes (two each Monday night) looks at a single category, be it biker bars, bars with a view, game bars, haunted bars, dockside bars and repurposed bars. There are also two destination episodes in Maui and Aspen, Colo.

In the Monday's opener, Maxwell surveys dockside bars in Baltimore, Florida and the San Francisco Bay area, the last a stop in Sausalito to check out the Trident, a bayfront establishment with an interesting history.

"That is where the tequila sunrise was invented," Maxwell notes. "The story is the Rolling Stones come in – Keith Richards, Mick Jagger – looking for a drink. They want something with tequila. The bartender slings something together and it becomes the tequila sunrise. And then of course, Otis Redding's hit song 'Dock of the Bay' ... he played right there on the dock because that was the view that inspired him"

What book are you currently reading?

"Well, I just cracked open 'Moveable Feast' by Hemingway. ... It's about his time in Paris in the '20s and it's a nice, really, retrospective considering what happened and how he ended up killing himself in Idaho. And so it's nice to remember the happy times and what inspired him and his friendships with some of the great writers. It was nice. Paris was a happy time then, it was before the war, it was a great place with all these salons and great thinkers and all of that, so I thought it would be a nice tribute to Papa."

What did you have for dinner last night?

"I had baked cod tongue and mashed potatoes because that's a delicacy in Norway."

What is your next project?

"We just started Season 4 of 'Booze Traveler' and we wrapped Season 1 of 'Best Bars.' And we'll be busy with 'Booze Traveler' now until the end of the year, like November."
