SUPERSTORE 7 p.m. on KXAS

It's an unofficial family day at Cloud 9, as Glenn (Mark McKinney) brings his children to work in the aptly titled new episode "Glenn's Kids." They have various effects on the workers, including Jonah (Ben Feldman), who becomes romantically inclined toward one of the older youngsters — creating a dilemma for Amy (America Ferrera). Mateo (Nico Santos) puts another of the kids to work. (N) HD CC (DVS)

RIVERDALE 8 p.m. on KDAF

Archie (KJ Apa) has an ulterior motive for agreeing to be Cheryl's (Madelaine Petsch) escort for maple-syrup tapping — no, we're not kidding — in the new "Chapter Nine: La Grande Illusion," and he manages to get information about Betty's (Lili Reinhart) sister in the process. Veronica (Camila Mendes) doesn't realize a new acquaintance holds a grudge against her family. Alice (Madchen Amick) is ready to avenge herself on the Blossoms. Luke Perry also stars. (N) HD CC

MOM

8:01 p.m. on KTVT

Bonnie (Allison Janney) mourns the passing of her mother in the new episode "Tush Push and Some Radishes," but the occasion takes on a different tone when a big secret that the late woman harbored is discovered by Bonnie and Christy (Anna Faris). Mimi Kennedy, Jaime Pressly and Beth Hall also star. (N) HD CC

GRIMM 7 p.m. on KXAS

It's genuinely a "Grimm" finale in the case of the aptly titled "The End," which closes out the six-season run of this fantasydrama series. Nick (David Giuntoli) runs up against the one enemy he may be unable to vanquish, though Monroe, Rosalee and Eve (Silas Weir Mitchell, Bree Turner, Bitsie Tulloch) do what they can to assist him. Diana (Hannah R. Loyd) and infant Kelly are protected by Capt. Renard and Adalind (Sasha Roiz, Claire Coffee). (Series Finale) (N) HD CC (DVS)

DISGRACED

8 p.m., 11 p.m. on SHOW

Filmmaker Pat Kondelis draws from first-hand accounts by students, investigators and associates of the key figures for this gripping new documentary that explores the 2003 murder of basketball star Patrick Dennehy at Baylor College, a private Baptist university in Waco, Texas. His teammate and friend Carlton Dotson subsequently pled guilty to the crime, but this film calls into question both that plea and his subsequent conviction. Head coach Dave Bliss also was cited in an attempted cover-up of NCAA rule violations. (Premiere)

SLEEPY HOLLOW 8:01 p.m. on KDFW

The drama's fourth season concludes with "Freedom," which is what Crane (Tom Mison) and company hope to limit when it comes to Dreyfuss (Jeremy Davies). The villain is ready to exert his influence over the White House, which only can mean disaster on a grand scale if he isn't stopped. Guest star John Noble returns as Henry Parrish. Javina Gavankar, Lyndie Greenwood, Rachel Melvin, Jerry MacKinnon and Oona Yaffe also star. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC (DVS)

BLINDSPOT 7 p.m. on KXAS

Jane (Jaimie Alexander) and her colleagues are under investigation themselves, by an old enemy who clearly has an agenda, in the new episode "Senile Lines." Meanwhile, a tattoo draws them into a new probe in a location that's somewhat surprising for them ... a foster home. Sullivan Stapleton and Archie Panjabi also star. (N) HD CC

EMPIRE

8 p.m. on KDFW

Ongoing situations in Cookie's (Taraji P.Henson) life make Angelo (guest star Taye Diggs) fear those could become liabilities for his mayoral bid in the new episode "Strange Bedfellows." Tariq's (Morocco Omari) revelation prompts a major decision by Anika (Grace Byers). A big surprise upsets Hakeem's (Bryshere "Yazz" Gray) birthday celebration. Nia Long, Rumer Willis and Leslie Uggams also guest star. (N) HD CC (DVS)

THE EXPANSE

9 p.m., 5 a.m. on SYFY The crew of the Rocinante un-

leashes something they can't even begin to comprehend when they stumble across a gruesome discovery in a new episode called "Here There Be Dragons." Avasarala (Shohreh Aghdashloo) finally makes contact with the slippery Jules Pierre-Mao (Francois Chau), while Bobbie (Frankie Adams) makes a profoundly life-changing decision.

REBEL 7 p.m. on BET

Continuing its initiative to beef up its scripted program content, BET launches this new prestige police drama from producer-director John Singleton ("Boyz n the Hood"), which deals with the internal conflict officers of color struggle with in a time when some departments are rife with misconduct. Theater actress Danielle Mone Truitt makes her TV series debut as Rebecca "Rebel" Knight, an Oakland, Calif., police officer; the ensemble also features Giancarlo Esposito ("Breaking Bad"), Mykelti Williamson, Cliff "Method Man" Smith and Brandon Quinn.

PRISON BREAK 8 p.m. on KDFW

One of Fox's staple series for several years gets a continuation as new episodes begin with "Ogygia." Wentworth Miller and Dominic Purcell — who have worked together in the interim on The CW's superhero shows — reunite as brothers Michael Scofield (thought to be dead as this version opens) and Lincoln Burrows, who find themselves in another challenge to break out of incarceration. Co-stars Sarah Wayne Callies and Robert Knepper also return. (Season Premiere) (N)

IZOMBIE

8 p.m. on KDAF

12

The seriocomic series' third season begins with "Heaven Just Got a Little Bit Smoother," an ironic title since Liv (Rose McIver) finds a surplus of zombies in Seattle. Many of them are being prepped by a private contractor to be members of an army of the undead. Still shunned by many, though he was cleared of being the Chaos Killer, Major (Robert Buckley) manages to find employment. David Anders, Malcolm Goodwin and Rahul Kohli also return as cast regulars. SAY YES TO THE PROM 7 p.m. on TLC

This 90-minute special, which has become an annual TLC spring tradition, is an offshoot of an initiative in which the network partners with Macy's department store to help make prom dreams come true for nearly 1,000 deserving and academically successful students across the country. The TV program follows five students from the 2017 Los Angeles event, where students received one-on-one style sessions with TLC guru Monte Durham as well as empowering advice via mentoring sessions. THE CATCH 8 p.m. on WFAA

The tone is lighter — more in line with romantic comedies about thieves such as, well, "To Catch a Thief" — in the second season of this series from executive producer Shonda Rhimes' stable. In "The New Deal," private detective Alice (Mireille Enos) remains determined to get the goods on her con-man ex-beau Benjamin (Peter Krause) while also working other cases. Sonya Walger, Rose Rollins, Elvy Yost and Jay Hayden continue as co-stars.

LOVE AT FIRST BARK

8 p.m. on HALL

Portland interior designer Julia Galvins (Jana Kramer) faces an unconventional challenge when a pregnant client — who also has a dog with a litter on the way hires Julia to design a nursery and a "puppery" for her. In the course of the assignment, Julia turns to canine expert and trainer Owen Michaels (Kevin McGarry) for advice and, in the way of all such romantic comedies, the two of them soon feel a connection. Sarah Edmondson, Anna Van Hooft, Natasha Burnett and Reese Alexander star in this 2017 romance. (Premiere) © a

ABORTION: STORIES WOMEN TELL

7 p.m. on HBO

More than 40 years have passed since the Supreme Court ruled that women had the right to choose the course of their pregnancies, but more recently state governments in more than half of the United States have imposed drastic restricions on abortions. This new documentary provides a window into the lives of women in Missouri, where only one abortion clinic remains open in the entire state. (Premiere) ©

TAKEN

9:01 p.m. on KXAS

A Russian agent's defection, in which Mills (Clive Standen) and his colleagues are assisting, becomes complicated by the man's pregnant girlfriend in the new episode "Hail Mary." A rogue Christina (Jennifer Beals) uses her own methods in an effort to find a CIA mole. Trying to intervene with gang members on his brother's behalf brings John (Gaius Charles) to a crossroads. Brooklyn Sudano, Michael Irby and Monique Gabriela Curnen also star. (N)

Others with multiple nominations include Miranda Lambert and Maren Morris (six each), and Florida Georgia Line and Tim McGraw (five each). Bentley himself is up for three of the honors. (N)

CALL THE MIDWIFE 7 p.m. on KERA

The Heidi Thomas-created drama series opens its sixth season in 1962, as "Episode 1" shows how then-modern times take a toll on staffers at Nonnatus House, both personally and professionally. A change in the hierarchy alarms many of them, while Sister Mary Cynthia's (Bryony Hannah) concerns also involve her own health. A young mother-to-be (Pearl Appleby) seeks refuge from her brutish husband at the convent. Jenny Agutter and Judy Parfitt also star. (Season Premiere) (N)

THE WALKING DEAD 8 p.m., 11:25 p.m., 2:50 a.m. on AMC

This hit cable series has had an erratic season that started with the death of one of its most beloved characters, but ratings suggest that disenchanted fans are starting to get back on board as Rick (Andrew Lincoln) and his posse take steps to reclaim their own fates against a monstrous adversary. In the new plus-size season finale, titled with cautious optimism "The First Day of the Rest of Your Life," Rick's group sets an intricate plan into motion. (Season Finale) (N) ©

PBS' 'Weekends With Yankee' offers up an insider's tour of New England

If you've been wanting to explore New England and its culinary destinations but have no idea where to begin, a new documentary series from WGBH and Yankee magazine offers up

In "Weekends With Yankee," premiering on PBS stations this month (check local listings), host and travel writer Richard Wiese and Yankee Senior Food Editor Amy Traverso take viewers on an insider's tour of the six states that make up the northeast corner of the U.S. to give them a local's perspective of the best the region has to offer, from activities and events to the arts and cuisine.

Over the course of 13 episodes, the hosts experience everything from harvesting scallops in Martha's Vineyard, Mass., and a clambake at Maine's Acadia National Park to the WaterFire festival in Providence, R.I., a wildlife encounter in Kent, Conn., and a tour of the burgeoning culinary scene of South Boston.

For Traverso, a Massachusetts native and and near-lifelong resident of the region, the yearlong trek was a combination of the familiar and the new, with the Maine clambake falling into the

"We went to this place which was very hard to access because there's no public parking, it's not really a public beach," she says.
"It's actually these geologic formations called the Ovens and basically they're these cliffs on the northeastern side of the island ... and the waves have sort of carved in these little mini caves that almost look like beehive ovens, which is where they get their name. ... So it's just this really dramatic backdrop place that normally we don't get to up close, but you can kayak there, but it can be hard to get there."

One of Traverso's favorite experiences was also in Maine, where she took a cruise on a 100-year-old windjammer from the midcoast town of Rockland. Here she lived in spartan conditions with no electricity and gravity-fed showers but dined on freshcaught seafood prepared by the vessel's chef and co-owner on a wood-fired cast-iron stove.

"Everyone has the initial thought of like, 'You're bringing fire on a boat?' "Traverso says. "But ... she is very safe, she is very careful with the fire and she makes the most incredible food. I mean, we ate so well that day and just to be out cruising Camden Harbor or Rockland Harbor smelling the salt air and eating fresh oysters and eating these biscuit buns that she had made for us in the morning, it was just a perfect day. I'm not even the best sailor but I just had the best time on that boat and we ate really well."

"There's something that does feel very New England about being on this boat where it's kind of pared down but it's luxurious in that you're eating incredibly well and you're seeing all this beauty and you have a comfortable, cozy place to sleep," she continues. "I think that's the kind of luxury that I really

Other stops in the series include an apple farm in Dummerston, Vt.; Mount Washington, the Northeast's highest peak, in New Hampshire; museums in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island; and a land-bound steamboat in Shelburne, Vt.

For Traverso, the odyssey through her native land was the most fun she's ever had doing a work project.

"It was just so beautiful, so much fun and such a great crew," she says, "and it kind of makes you fall in love with New England all over again."
