tonight's PIČKS THURSDAY Prime Time

SUPERSTORE 7 p.m. on KXAS

A cloud of a different kind — and a really, really big one impacts Cloud 9 and its workers as the show's second season ends with "Tornado." From that title, it's easy to anticipate what weather to expect, though it's also stormy inside the store as Glenn (Mark McKinney) has to make decisions on layoffs and Jonah (Ben Feldman) has loose ends to tie up with Amy (America Ferrera). Mateo (Nico Santos) makes a surprising move to try to save his job. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC (DVS)

RIVERDALE 8 p.m. on KDAF

The latest developments prompt Archie and Veronica (KJ Apa, Camila Mendes) to tell their parents what they know in the new "Chapter Twelve: Anatomy of a Murder." Jughead (Cole Sprouse) is their tentative ally, given the betrayal he's experienced from them. Cheryl (Madelaine Petsch) has a showdown with her mother. Lili Reinhart, Luke Perry, Madchen Amick and Marisol Nichols also star. (N) HD CC

LATIN MUSIC USA 8 p.m. on KERA

Actor Jimmy Smits ("24: Legacy") narrates this survey of American music that was forged from strong Latin roots. The first hour, "Bridges," traces the rise of Latin jazz and the surging popularity of the mambo and the cha-cha, as well as how Latin music spiced up rhythm and blues and rock 'n' roll. Then "The Salsa Revolution" explores how New York Latinos reinvented traditional Puerto Rican styles by adding soul and jazz elements to create salsa. HD CC

TUESDAY Prime Time

JACKSON 6:30 p.m. on SHOW

Filmmaker Maisie Crow makes a formidable directing debut with this insightful new documentary that examines the issues surrounding a woman' right to choose in Mississippi While abortions remain legal in the United States, anti-abortion activists have succeeded in making it virtually inaccessible. Mississippi used to have 14 abortion clinics; at present, only one is still open. Crow examines the story from the vantage points of four women whose lives are directly touched by this polarizing topic. (Premiere) CC

THE FLASH 7 p.m. on KDAF

Anne Dudek ("House") gues stars as a scientist who could help Barry (Grant Gustin) and his comrades stop Savitar -Killer Frost (Danielle Panabaker) doesn't get to her before that in the new episode "I Know Who You Are." Cisco (Carlos Valdes) has an especially hard time with fighting the villainess he used to know as his friend Caitlin Joe and Cecile (Jesse L. Martin, guest star Danielle Nicolet) reach a new stage in their relationship. (N) HD CC

FRONTLINE 9 p.m. on KERA

The title of the new episode "Second Chance Kids" refers to juveniles who are serving prison time for murder - and whose cases are being reconsidered as the result of a Supreme Court order. Some of those young inmates have been released as a result, and this hour follows two of them as they try to assimilate back into society. As the program confirms, readjusting to life on the outside is not an easy situation for them, nor for those who are close to them. (N) HD CC

TRAINING DAY 7 p.m. on KTVT

The disappearances of several of Holly's (Julie Benz) "working girls" draws the attention of Frank (the late Bill Paxton) and Kyle (Justin Cornwell) in the new episode "Sunset." Their investigation eventually focuses on a Hollywood producer known for his quirks. Guest stars include Lou Diamond Phillips, Sofia Vassilieva and Jim Piddock. Katrina Law, Drew Van Acker, Christina Vidal and Marianne Jean-Baptiste also star. (N) Đ 🖸

THE SON 8 p.m., 9 p.m., 1 a.m. on AMC; 8 p.m. on SUND

Back in 1849, a formidable enemy compels Young Eli (Jacob Lofland) to guestion where his loyalties truly lie in a new episode called "No Prisoners." In the show's "present," 1915, the McCullough clan finds their past coming back to haunt them, and it looks as if the outcome may be deadly. Pierce Brosnan and Zahn McClarnon also star. (N) CC

CLASS

9 p.m., 12 a.m. on BBCA

The new episode "Nightvisiting" finds part of London infiltrated by a malevolent alien from another dimension who is able to morph into the shape of lost loved ones. As usual, it has a horribly sinister endgame in mind as it seduces its way into the lives of its intended victims - none more poignantly than Tanya (Vivian Oparah), who lost her beloved father when she was just a child. Fady Elsayed, Greg Austin and Katherine Kelly also star. (N) CC

A heaping helping of culinary programming as April turns to May

Just as April showers give way to May flowers, new culinary programming springs up this week on basic cable, as the year's fourth month segues to the fifth.

First and foremost on that list is "Ayesha's Home Kitchen," premiering Sunday, April 30, on Food Network. The six-episode, half-hour series features Curry - cookbook author, social media maven, mother of two and wife of NBA superstar Stephen Curry - showcasing quick and tasty recipes that she prepares with the help of family and friends. In the opener, it's taco night at the Curry house, so Ayesha makes pulled chicken tacos from the meat of a rotisserie chicken, cilantro lime rice, horchata brownies and smoky pineapple margarita. Ideas to consider for Cinco de Mayo, which is Friday.

The next night on Food is the Season 2 opener of "Kids Barbecue Championship," which finds hosts Eddie Jackson and Damaris Phillips presiding as young grillers vie in a series of competitions for a $10,000 grand prize. Tuesday, May 2, it's the return of Cooking Channel's "Big Bad BBQ Brawl," in which Brooklyn-reared pitmaster Shannon Ambrosio hits the road

Subscribe today (972) 937-3310 WAXAHACHIETX.COM DAILY LIGHT to Albuquerque to challenge a favorite local restaurant to a "sandwich slam." You can be certain that no matter who wins, the outcome will be delicious - and very hot. Speaking of eating and traveling, Josh Denny of Food's "Ginormous Food" does plenty of it, and in the Friday, May 5, episode, he touches down in Columbia, S.C., to sample a 14-inch gravy-laden biscuit loaded with meat and eggs, a 12-pound hash-brown casserole and "the Cinnamonster," a 22-inch cinnamon roll. No word yet on how many antacids were consumed in the making of this production.

Also walking on the culinary wild side is Noah Cappe of Cooking's "Carnival Eats," who in the Thursday, May 4, episode stops at Pennsylvania's Big Butler Fair to chow down on a Greek pizza, a crabby patty burger and a Fluffernutter elephant ear pastry. Decadent, yes, but also delicious.

If your tastes run to the more refined, there is the Sunday episode of Food's "Giada in Italy," which takes Giada De Laurentiis to the fashionable city of Florence to host a cocktail party on a terrace near the famed Duomo cathedral, with a menu that includes crab arancini, avocado white bean dip and grappa poached pears with speck. Delicioso.

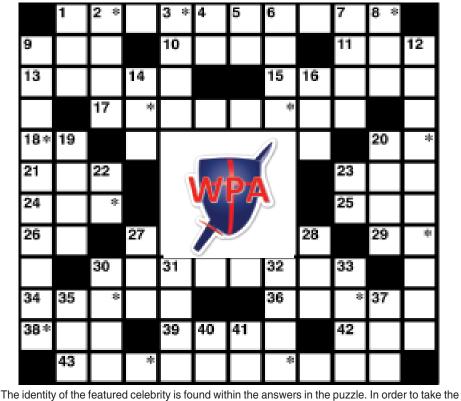

Over on Travel Channel, "Food Paradise" heads to cities across the country to highlight tall orders - literally meals that are stacked high - on Sunday; Jack Maxwell and "Booze Traveler: Best Bars" tours more noteworthy watering holes across the U.S. on Monday; and Andrew Zimmern and "Bizarre Foods: Delicious Destinations" checks out the offbeat culinary offerings in New York City and Berlin on Tuesday.
