This new supernatural-tinged drama series is set in the placid coastal town of Bristol Cove, which local legend touts as the erstwhile home of mermaids. What may have worked well for the local Chamber of Commerce takes a dark turn, however, when a mysterious beauty (Eline Powell) who calls herself Ryn appears in the town and begins wreaking havoc among its residents. Alex Roe, Ian Verdun, Rena Owen and Fola Evans-Akingbola also star. Another new episode immediately follows.

MARCIA CLARK INVESTIGATES THE FIRST 48

8 p.m., 12:03 a.m. on AETV

Still best known in her role as prosecutor during the O.J. Simpson murder trial, Marcia Clark also has years of experience as a defense attorney, and she brings both those perspectives to this new docuseries, in which she delves into some shocking crimes that either remain unsolved or ended with controversial outcomes. The series premiere, 'Casey Anthony," revisits the unresolved death of toddler Caylee Anthony, whose own mother emerged as the prime suspect. Clark re-examines the first 48 hours after the crime was discovered.

March 23, 2018 tonight

BLINDSPOT 7 p.m. on KXAS

A CIA source threatens to tear the team apart in a new episode called "Artful Dodge." Rich Dotcom's (recurring guest star Ennis Esmer) role in the FBI is rudely called into question, while Roman and Crawford (Luke Mitchell, special guest star David Morse) find themselves spending a day together under circumstances that are strange, to say the least. Sullivan Stapleton, Jaimie Alexander and Rob Brown also star; Chad Donella and Lauren Stamile also guest star.

PUP STAR: BETTER 2GETHER 8 p.m. on DISN

Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, they say, which is why Tiny (voice of Kaitlyn Maher) is getting ready to defend the singing competition title she won in the 2016 family comedy "Pup Star." Standing in her way is Bark (voice of George Newbern), the scheming club owner who returns to kidnap Tiny and replace her with a rapping street Yorkie named Scrappy (also Maher). Obba Babatunde and David DeLuise costar in this 2017 sequel.

MARVEL'S AGENTS OF S.H.I.E.L.D. 8:01 p.m. on WFAA

During their time on the S.H.I.E.L.D. team, Fitz and Simmons (lain De Caestecker, Elizabeth Henstridge) have confronted what seems to be every conceivable form of threat, many of them potentially lethal, so one might assume at this point the two agents are ready for anything. Not necessarily, though, because as they undertake a critical mission to seal the Rift, the pair are faced with the manifestation of one of their greatest fears in the new episode "The Devil Complex." Clark Gregg also stars.

March 28, 2018 tonight

ALEX, INC. 7:30 p.m. on WFAA

During his run on "Scrubs," Zach Braff branched into making his own feature films, notably with "Garden State" — so he's on somewhat familiar territory by serving as both star and director again as this comedy series debuts with "The Unfair Advantage." Braff plays a journalist who decides to go into business for himself, hence the show's title, and his professional decision has definite reverberations in his family life. Costars include Michael Imperioli ("The Sopranos"), Tiya Sircar and Hillary Anne Matthews.

THE AMERICANS 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12 a.m. on FX

The critically acclaimed spy drama jumps forward to 1987 as it opens its sixth and final season with "Dead Hand," which finds Elizabeth (Keri Russell) exhausted and stressed out with preparations connected to a major arms control summit that's about to happen. Hubby Philip (Matthew Rhys), meanwhile, has forsaken his longtime spy gig in favor of a cushy corporate job running the newly expanded travel agency. Can this marriage be saved?

7 p.m. on KTVT

The team suddenly finds its own headquarters to be uncertain turf in the new episode "Death From Above," when bomb-making elements — and a body - are found in the building. On a lighter note, Ducky's (David McCallum) colleagues get to read the first draft of his book. Series co-star Rocky Carroll doubles as director again with this story. Robert Wagner returns in his recurring guest role. Pauley Perrette, Sean Murray, Emily Wickersham and Wilmer Valderrama also star.

BULL 8 p.m. on KTVT

One of television's most enduring and popular actresses - Emmy winner Dana Delany - guest stars in the new episode "Bad Medicine," playing a federal prosecutor who has Bull's (Michael Weatherly) latest client in her sights. The defendant is a doctor who brought a marijuana-based oil across state lines to treat patients, and the attorney portrayed by Delany has the medic arrested on a charge of possession.

Jenna Fischer ("The Office") and Oliver Hudson ("Rules of Engagement") return to series work in this new sitcom, developed from a Danish show by executive producers including Ellen DeGeneres and Emily Kapnek ("Suburgatory"). The stars play a couple who decide to divorce in this 'Pilot" - but after surprising their relatives with the news during a family dinner, they start to reconsider. The supporting cast includes Diane Farr ("Numb3rs") and Lindsay Price ("Beverly Hills, 90210").

March 26, 2018 tonight's PICKS

THE TERROR 8 p.m., 10:01 p.m., 2:32 a.m. on AMC

Ridley Scott is among the executive producers on this new series adaptation of a novel by Dan Simmons, which was inspired in turn by the historical plight of the 1845-46 Franklin Expedition. Like that reallife endeavor, the Royal Navy crew in this suspense thriller find themselves trapped and icebound in the Arctic as they search for the Northwest Passage. As their supplies dwindle, a terrifying monster seems to be stalking them. Jared Harris, Ciaran Hinds and Tobias Menzies star.

THE ALIENIST 8 p.m., 9:04 p.m., 3:02 a.m. on TNT

As this thrilling period murder mystery comes to a conclusion in the finale "Castle in the Sky," Kreizler (Daniel Bruhl) is forced to confront the harrowing demons from his past. John Moore (Luke Evans) makes a candid confession to Sara (Dakota Fanning). Connor (David Wilmot) takes matters into his own hands while the team closes in on their quarry, as time is running out.

Director Danny Boyle and writer Simon Beaufoy, both of whom won Academy Awards for their work on "Slumdog Millionaire," re-team for this new true-crime limited series revolving around the same incident that drove the recent feature film "All the Money in the World": the 1973 kidnapping of young J. Paul Getty III (Harris Dickinson). Donald Sutherland stars as the victim's fabulously wealthy grandfather, and Hilary Swank plays young Getty's mother, who hires an investigator (Brendan Fraser) to attempt a rescue.

From a business perspective, things are looking rosy for the Pied Piper guys as this Emmy-winning comedy returns for Season 5 with "Grow Fast or Die Slow." Typically, however, the ample funding and shiny new offices only put more pressure to get everything right on tightly wound Richard (Thomas Middleditch). Elsewhere, Gavin (Matt Ross) worries that he is becoming antiquated after returning to Hooli, while Dinesh and Guilfoyle (Kumail Nanjiani, Martin Starr) question the decisions they're making. Zach Woods also stars.

Former "Saturday Night Live" mainstay Bill Hader wears multiple creative hats with this very dark new comedy, on which he is co-creator (with Alec Berg, "Silicon Valley"), executive producer, frequent director and leading man. Hader takes the title role of a depressed Midwestern hitman who stumbles into an improbable new passion for acting while trying to fulfill a contract killing. Stephen Root co-stars as Barry's handler; the cast also includes Henry Winkler, Glenn Fleshler, Sarah Goldberg and Anthony Carrigan.

Fusion's 'Food Exposed' illustrates the true cost of what we eat

All food comes with a cost, not just in terms of produce it. And after watching "Food Exposed," you'll have a better idea what that is.

Premiering Tuesday, March 27, on Fusion, the eightpart documentary series presents an eye-opening look at Here, Hedayat goes on a "trash tour" of New York's the most pertinent issues affecting food production and examines what the true costs are for farmers, workers and the environment. Hosted by British journalist Nelufar Hedayat ("The Traffickers"), the series covers topics such as dairy, fish, water, GMOs (genetically modified organisms), superfoods, palm oil and pork and features interviews with celebrity activists James Cromwell, Nicole Richie, Jordana Brewster, Dominic Monaghan and Moby

"I was absolutely engrossed in the whole idea of food and where it comes from and about what it costs people and the planet," Hedayat says. "And that was my main thing ... like, what am I doing? This was a thing that I do ritualistically. I eat more than I've ever prayed.

... And yet I eat and I have my rituals around food dollars and cents, but also who and what is sacrificed to religiously. You know, the gatherings, the parties. We do it all the time. ... And I thought this is something that everyone's going to want to talk about and learn.'

The opening episode, "Waste," is an attention-getter. Greenwich Village, where a group of activists called "freegans" find perfectly edible baked goods, fruits, vegetables and even sushi in restaurant and market garbage cans and dumpsters, their only sin being they've outlived their "sell by" date.

And it is here where the cost comes into focus, in terms of the land, water and energy needed to produce the food and then on the back end, the methane (a greenhouse gas) that is emitted when it rots in a andfill, thus contributing to climate change.

"The one thing I was kind of haunted with at the end of that trash tour," Hedayat says, "is this idea that waste is absolutely built into the system. Standing there holding those warm, delicious cookies having just been chucked out, I realized that money, value all these things are arbitrary, and it's up to us what we value and we just do not value things the way that we would like to.

"Everyone always wants to aspire to the highest level," she continues, "where we have to do so much better with something like food, because the amount we throw away is terrible. Of course, no one wants to do it, no one willingly does it. But the cumulative effect is so gargantuan that unless we really figure out ways around it, we're not going to be able to continue in this way."
