BEAT SHAZAM 7 p.m. on KDFW

Before he became an Oscar winner for "Ray," Jamie Foxx was a Fox-series regular as a co-star of "In Living Color." Now, Foxx is back on Fox as host of this new game show sort of an update of "Name That Tune" — which tests players on their knowledge of music. Two teams have to beat the clock, and each other, in supplying the titles of popular songs; then, the winners get to play for $1 million. Mark Burnett ("The Voice") is the executive producer. RED NOSE DAY 9 p.m. on KXAS

A major attraction of the third annual U.S. edition of this variety event is a short film updating the popular movie "Love Actually," with many of the original cast members - including Hugh Grant, Liam Neeson, Colin Firth, Keira Knightley, Bill Nighy and Andrew Lincoln reprising their roles. The 2003 film was written and directed by Richard Curtis, who also originated this fundraiser for charities around the world, particularly those that benefit children. (N) HD CC

UNDERCOVER BOSS 7 p.m. on KTVT

The series' eighth season ends with the second of two celebrity editions, as chef and restaurateur Marcus Samuelson assumes an alias to seek others who would be culinary assets to professional kitchens. Among the places he looks for such talent are a cooking class and a food truck ... where the candidates have no, or at least little, suspicion that they're being assessed by one of the top performers in their intended field. (Season Finale) (N)

12 MONKEYS 7 p.m. on SYFY

Time travel is a primary component of this TV series adaptation of a classic 1995 sci-fi feature film, so it makes sense that Syfy is giving fans a chance to enjoy all of the new Season 3 via a three-night event, starting with four new back-to-back episodes tonight. The season premiere, "Mother," opens in the apocalypse of 2163, as a desperate Cole (Aaron Stanford) searches for Titan. Elsewhere, Railly (Amanda Schull) confronts an impossible choice as the 12 Monkeys await the arrival of the Witness. (Season Premiere) (N)

THE NEW I LOVE LUCY SUPERSTAR SPECIAL

8 p.m. on KTVT

CBS has had ratings success in rejuvenating classic episodes of the ever-popular 1950s Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz sitcom and colorizing them, so here are two more stories with very familiar guest stars. One of them is Harpo Marx, and he and Lucy do their famous routine mimicking each other as if they're looking into a mirror. The other tale, "The Dancing Star," features the suave Van Johnson. William Frawley and Vivian Vance play Fred and Ethel Mertz, of course. (N)

SHOTS FIRED 7 p.m. on KDFW

The drama's season finale brings the investigations of the two shootings to their ends in "Hour 10: Last Dance." The jurors hear the final arguments from Preston (Stephan James), while Pastor Janae (Aisha Hinds) is among those gathered outside the courtroom to await the verdicts. However, the tragedies connected to the situations may not be over. Sanaa Lathan, Stephen Moyer, Will Patton, Helen Hunt, Richard Dreyfuss and Jill Hennessy also star. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC (DVS)

SURVIVOR 7 p.m. on KTVT

The "Game Changers" edition of the competition certainly has lived up to that title, with some developments making headlines — but the group of returning players knows every season of the game must end, as do the series' fans, and the two-hour season finale arrives here. One of the remaining contestants will outwit, outplay and outlast the others and win the $1 million grand prize. Immediately afterward, Jeff Probst holds to tradition by hosting a reunion special. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC

BROOKLYN NINE-NINE

7 p.m. on KDFW

Ryan Phillippe has played it straight in the action series "Shooter," but he goes for laughs as this police comedy ends its fourth season with back-to-back episodes starting with "The Bank Job." He guest stars as Gina's (Chelsea Peretti) new beau, who meets with Boyle's (Joe Lo Truglio) disapproval. Then, in "Crime & Punishment," Jake and Rosa (Andy Samberg, Stephanie Beatriz) end up being framed ... and rely on their colleagues to set them free. (Season Finale) (N)

DOWNWARD DOG 7 p.m. on WFAA

The new comedy series settles into its regular day and time with "Boundaries," describing what Nan (Allison Tolman) tries to set for Jason (Lucas Neff) as he continues to walk canine Martin. To limit Jason's access to her residence, she has an automatic dog door put in for Martin — who then gets the mistaken impression that he can open any door just by willing it. Nan has problems at work when boss Kevin (Barry Rothbart) can't quite grasp her new ad campaign. (Series Premiere) (N) ID CE

BULL

8 p.m. on KTVT

As the drama series concludes its first season with "Benevolent Deception," Eliza Dushku continues her guest role as the criminal defense attorney working with Bull (Michael Weatherly) and his team. They go to Miami for a case that could put them in the line of fire — more than figuratively — since their client and the jurors are all in peril, due to drug traffickers. Freddy Rodriguez, Geneva Carr, Jaime Lee Kirchner and Christopher Jackson also star. (Season Finale) (N)

GANGLAND UNDERCOVER 6 p.m. on HIST

After a long hiatus, this scripted crime drama returns with a minimarathon to finish out Season 2 tonight. When Operation Black Rain wraps up somewhat prematurely, Falco's (Damon Runyan) position as an undercover operative seems doomed. Bullet (Thomas Mitchell) strikes a deal with The Devil (Steven Eric McIntyre), though, putting Falco once again face to face with a formidable old nemesis in "Black Rain." Four more new episodes immediately follow. (N) ©

THE WIZARD OF LIES 7 p.m., 1:30 a.m. on HBO

ABC got there first with its twonight 2016 TV movie "Madoff," starring Academy Award winner Richard Dreyfuss as corrupt financier Bernie
Madoff, but this new HBO chronicle of the Ponzi scheme that shook the world has its own rewards and a different Oscar champ in the central role: Robert De Niro, also an executive producer on the film. Michelle Pfeiffer plays Bernie's innocent wife,
Ruth, in a cast that also includes
Alessandro Nivola, Hank Azaria, Lily
Rabe and Kristen Connolly. Barry
Levinson directs. (Premiere)

TRAINING DAY 8 p.m. on KTVT

The police drama inspired by the Oscar-winning Denzel Washington movie ends its freshman (and possibly only) season with "Elegy, Part 2." Frank (the late Bill Paxton, doing what turned,out to be some of his last work) heads to Mexico on his own to try to solve the murder of Kyle's (Justin Cornwell) father. Kyle, Tommy (Drew Van Acker) and Rebecca (Katrina Law) follow Frank there. "ER" alum Eriq La Salle directed the tale. Joaquim de Almeida guest stars. (Season Finale) (N)

GOTHAM 7 p.m. on KDFW

The training continues for Bruce Wayne (David Mazouz) as he finds out more about Temple Shaman's (guest star Raymond J. Barry) intentions in the new episode "Heroes Rise: All Will Be Judged." A crystal owl becomes the source of trouble for Gordon and Bullock (Ben McKenzie, Donal Logue) since it contains much information about the city's criminal element. Nygma and Penguin (Cory Michael Smith, Robin Lord Taylor) become mutually wary partners. Sean Pertwee also stars. (N) HD CC (DVS)

JANE THE VIRGIN 8 p.m. on KDAF

Enlisted to speak for Xo and Rogelio (Andrea Navedo, Jaime Camil) at the altar, Jane (Gina Rodriguez) gets unexpected inspiration as the show ends its third season with "Chapter Sixty-Four." She may not say the words, though, since Rogelio gets an unpleasant surprise before the ceremony. Luisa (guest star Yara Martinez) has different ideas about Rafael's (Justin Baldoni) intention to send her packing. Petra (Yael Grobglas) makes an impulsive move. (Season Finale) (N) ID CC

One star who's been a staple of that city for a number of years through her "residency" show, Celine Dion, is salted to perform. So are Bruno Mars, Camila Cabello, Drake, Ed Sheeran, Florida Georgia Line, Imagine Dragons, John Legend, Lorde and Nicki Minaj. Cher performs and also receives the Icon Award. (N)

Spend Memorial Day weekend with your grill and Food Network

With the holiday weekend just around the corner, many Americans will no doubt be firing up their grills for some serious duty over the three days. And Food Network has some suggestions on what to put on it.

Its two-day "Grilling/BBQ Weekend" kicks off the morning of Saturday, May 27, with so-themed episodes of "Pioneer Woman," "The Kitchen" and "Valerie's Home Cooking," the last of which sees host Valerie Bertinelli engaging in "All Day Grilling" - starting with a breakfast of grilled French toast with apple berry compote and apple

That's right, French toast on the grill.

"This all came about," Bertinelli explains, "because my friends ... came over last summer and they grilled an entire breakfast on our grill. And it was so impressive I was like, 'OK, that's it. You have now challenged me ... to a grilling episode all day. And I want you to come over here and I am going to grill you breakfast, lunch and toast, the menu also consists of a lunch of a grilled shrimp and radicchio salad with honey balsamic vinaigrette, followed by a dinner of grilled lamb meatball flatbread with grilled tomato sauce, washed down with a grilled citrus spiked lemonade.

If you're looking for something different to grill this holiday weekend, why not try lettuce? Bertinelli has long been a proponent of grilling the leafy greens but as with anything cooked over fire, there is a technique. The head should be cut in halves or quarters, seasoned and brushed or sprayed with oil (as should the grill surface). When done you shouldn't be too hasty in pulling it off the grill, lest the leaves rip. And don't be alarmed when the lettuce wilts. That, she says, is what should happen.

"Grilling for me is very close to roasting and I prefer all my vegetables roasted, so I think it's a very similar flavor," she says. "It adds that smokiness and it brings out and intensifies the flavor of any of your vegetables, so that's what I love about it. The radicchio, it kind of takes away a little bit of the bitterness but still keeps that enough so that it's still flavorful. And the romaine, it just gives it even more flavor.'
