MATCH GAME 8 p.m. on WFAA

Anthony Anderson hosts his own game show now, with the revival of "To Tell the Truth," but that doesn't prevent him from filling in the blanks here as a celebrity panelist in this new episode. He joins his "black-ish" co-star Jenifer Lewis and returnees Jack McBrayer ("30 Rock") and Ellie Kemper ("Unbreakable Kimmy Schmidt"), as well as James Van Der Beek (now on "Pose") and "The Office" alum Kate Flannery, to try to help contestants win big money. Alec Baldwin is the host.

TAKE TWO 9 p.m. on WFAA

Jonathan Silverman has a regular role - opposite wife Jennifer Finnigan — on "Salvation" this summer, but he also appears here in the new episode "Smoking Gun," playing a Hollywood producer who is found holding a literal smoking gun while standing near his slain mistress. He maintains his innocence in her death, and Sam (Rachel Bilson) believes him, though Eddie (Eddie Cibrian) thinks the case is open-and-shut. The resulting probe yields lots of surprises, including false identities. Aliyah O'Brien also stars.

8:02 p.m., 10:02 p.m. on

Treasure hunter Darrell Miklos resumes his search for sunken treasures, guided by a map created from space more than 50 years ago by NASA astronaut Gordon Cooper, as this fascinating unscripted series returns for Season 2. After last season's frustrations, including a governmental shutdown of the hunt over a disputed claim, Miklos sets sail for the Bahamas to investigate a list of 11 shipwreck sites Gordon Cooper himself had tracked.

Mama June: From Not to Hot

After all the drama she's had as Iris on "The Flash," Candice Patton probably could use some laughs — and she gets them by joining series regulars Wayne Brady, Colin Mochrie and Ryan Stiles in this episode. No stranger to this show, comedian Jeff Davis also takes part in building improvised skits and songs from the studio audience's suggestions. Aisha Tyler is the host.

BIG BROTHER 7 p.m. on KTVT

After the past winter's first celebrity edition of this competition, it's back to business as usual as a new set of regular-folks houseguests arrive to start the 20th season of strategizing, aligning and double-crossing in a residence laden with cameras and microphones. It's all in pursuit of a $500,000 payday for the winner at the end of the summer. Of course, Julie Chen is back as host of the proceedings, which will be broadcast weekly on Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday.

CODE BLACK 9 p.m. on KTVT

Standing trial for malpractice, Elliot (Noah Gray-Cabey) thinks his fate is all but sealed by some highly damaging testimony in the new episode "Change of Heart." Related documentary footage gives him one glimmer of hope for his future. A tragedy for Ariel (Emily Alyn Lind) leads Leanne (Marcia Gay Harden) to supply all the comfort she can. Laura Leighton ("Melrose Place") and Linda Purl guest star. Rob Lowe and Moon Bloodgood also star.

AMERICA'S GOT TALENT 7 p.m. on KXAS

The fifth round of auditions for the season fuels this new episode, with judges Mel B, Simon Cowell, Heidi Klum and Howie Mandel continuing to survey hopefuls with a wide range of skills. Having happened already since the show returned, the Golden Buzzer which sends someone directly to the finals — is a definite possibility for performers who are particularly impressive. Tyra Banks is the host.

FORGED IN FIRE 8 p.m., 11:03 p.m. on HIST

The four featured smiths face an unusually challenging assignment in the opening round, as they are tasked with forging the iconic KA-BAR military blade using only tiny cubes of W-1 steel. After the judges subject their weapons to two extreme tests, the two competitors who prevail have five days in their home forges to recreate a glaive-guisarme, a European polearm that consists of a single-edged blade on the end of a pole and a small hook on the reverse side of the blade. Weapons expert Wil Willis hosts.

WORLD OF DANCE 9 p.m. on KXAS

"The Qualifiers" enter their fifth round in this new episode as judges Jennifer Lopez, Derek Hough and Ne-Yo continue to gauge the contenders who have come from around the world to vie for this competition's $1 million grand prize. Jenna Dewan also remains on hand as both the show's host and a mentor to the dancers.

PENN & TELLER: FOOL US

7 p.m. on KDAF

"Won't Get Fooled Again" may not apply to the comedicmagician team, since this series proves that they're up for being stymied by other illusionists. As its fifth season begins with "Penn the Magic Dragon," the show again challenges the duo to guess how guests do their tricks; if they can't, the contenders — who include Piff the Magic Dragon here, hence the episode's title — win spots in the pair's Las Vegas act. "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" and "How I Met Your Mother" alum Alyson Hannigan returns as the

SALVATION 8 p.m. on KTVT

The asteroid hasn't hit Earth yet, but it's still on its way and many more people become aware of it, thanks to a nuclear threat at home — as this sci-fi drama starts its second season with "Fall Out." Pentagon official Grace (Jennifer Finnigan) and scientists Liam and Darius (Charlie Rowe, Santiago Cabrera) must adapt quickly to the changing circumstances. Jonathan Silverman, Finnigan's husband, joins the cast as a presidential adviser. Ian Anthony Dale and Jacqueline Byers also resume their roles.

Yeh makes comfort food with an ethnic/ regional flair on 'Girl Meets Farm'

She may be a Juilliard-trained percussionist, but Molly Yeh found that food prep offered her something music could not – a more fulfilling creative outlet.

And that's on display in her new Sunday morning Food Network series "Girl Meets Farm," premiering June 24. From her farmhouse kitchen on the Minnesota/North Dakota border, the New York City transplant walks viewers through the preparation of original comfort food recipes inspired by her Jewish and Chinese heritage and her Midwest locale.

In the series premiere, she shows how to make a truly Midwestern delight, the taco in a bag.
