THE BOY DOWNSTAIRS 7 p.m. on HBO

Writer-director Sophie Brooks made her feature film debut with this likable if lowkey 2017 romantic comedy starring Zosia Mamet ("Girls") as Diana, an aspiring writer who finds an available apartment in a charming New York brownstone building rented out by Amy (Deirdre O'Connell), a free-spirited widow. The place looks ideal for Diana's needs until she discovers her downstairs neighbor is Ben (Matthew Shear, "The Alienist"), her ex-boyfriend with whom she ended things awkwardly. Sarah Ramos, Diana Irvine and Arliss Howard also star.

SNOWFALL 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 12 a.m. on FX

Season 2 of this gritty drama moves the action into 1984, as Franklin (Damson Idris) is having to struggle just to meet the escalating demands of his thriving business in the premiere "Sightlines." Elsewhere, Lucia (Emily Rios) takes things too far in her determination to impress a shady new partner, and the CIA cuts Teddy's (Carter Hudson) support, the result of changing political tides, just as he's trying to recruit a new pilot.

HARRY POTTER AND THE SORCERER'S STONE

7 p.m. on SYFY

This Friday the 13th is lucky for "Harry Potter" fans, as USA and Syfy offer a weekend getaway to Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry via a marathon simulcast of J.K. Rowling's entire epic saga of "the boy who lived" and his friends (and enemies). As Harry, Hermione and Ron, Daniel Radcliffe, Emma Watson and Rupert Grint are among the common elements in the entire eight-film series.

MARSHALL 8 p.m., 3:45 a.m. on SHOW

The title refers to Thurgood Marshall, the first African-American member of the U.S Supreme Court, in director Reginald Hudlin's fine 2017 biographical drama. Chadwick Boseman ("42") has the title role as the script focuses on Marshall's earlier years as an attorney dedicated to fighting racial injustice — and experiencing some of it himself, particularly while handling the case of a chauffeur ("This Is Us" Emmy winner Sterling K. Brown) accused of assault by his employer (Kate Hudson). Josh Gad plays Marshall's courtroom colleague.

C.B. STRIKE 9 p.m., 10 p.m., 1:10 a.m. on CINE

This miniseries presentation of three mysteries by Robert Galbraith ("Harry Potter" author J.K. Rowling) draws to a close in "Career of Evil: Part 2," which finds London private eye Cormoran Strike (Tom Burke) hitting several local strip clubs seeking information on Niall Brockbank (guest star Andrew Brooke), one of the murder suspects, while the killer continues to taunt them.

MAN FIRE FOOD 8 p.m., 12 a.m. on COOK

Barbecue often is closely associated with rustic smalltown venues, but host Roger Mooking proves you can find great 'que in a metro setting as well, in the new episode "BBQ in Big Cities." At Bludso's Bar and Que in Los Angeles, owner Kevin Bludso uses cooking techniques his Texas grandmother taught him, loading up his giant smoker with brisket, pork ribs and chicken, which take a fragrant "bath" in oak and pecan smoke. In San Antonio, Emilio and Chrisi Soliz blend Texas-style barbecue with Tex-Mex flavors.

8 p.m., 11 p.m. on USA

A longtime flagship series for USA, this legal dramedy has reinvented itself more than once during the past seven seasons, but faces new challenges in Season 8, with the departure of key original cast members Gina Torres, Patrick J. Adams and Meghan Markle. Tonight's premiere finds stalwart law-firm colleagues Harvey, Louis and Donna (Gabriel Macht, Rick Hoffman and Sarah Rafferty) continuing their courtroom battles. Katherine Heigl joins the cast this season as powerhouse attorney Samantha Wheeler; Dule Hill and Amanda Schull also star.

8 p.m., 11 p.m. on FOOD

Host Ted Allen opens Season 40 (!) of his popular reality competition series with a premiere called "Fire It Up!," wherein a group of firefighter cooks compete to show who can stay cool under pressure and thrive when the heat is on. The entree round challenges the firefighters to figure out a way to pair a sweet treat with beef. And does anyone need to be told the dessert round is of the flaming variety? Alex Guarnaschelli, Marcus Samuelsson and Geoffrey Zakarian are the judges.

THE LAST DEFENSE 9 p.m. on WFAA

The documentary series probe of its second death-row case continues with the new episode "Julius Jones: The Trial," as the prosecutors appear to build a strong indictment of Jones via statements from their star witness. The defense then tries to discredit that testimony, but loopholes are left that could jeopardize that attempt. Two voluntary witnesses may be Jones' last hopes. Viola Davis and her husband, Julius Tennon, are among the show's executive producers.

ME, MYSELF & I 7 p.m. on KTVT

The title holiday could mean a new romantic interest for the present-day Alex (Bobby Moynihan) in "Thanksgiving," as Darryl and Wendy (Jaleel White, Tia Mowry) use the occasion to set him up with an appealing woman (guest star Sarah Burns). In younger years, Alex (Jack Dylan Grazer) is thrilled when Nori (Reylynn Caster) attends his family's Thanksgiving dinner, even with her brother in tow.

LIVING BIBLICALLY 8 p.m. on KTVT

"Thou Shalt Not Covet," which also is the title of this new episode, proves a tough commandment for Chip (Jay R. Ferguson) to live by when he becomes a contender for a journalism award. His rivals for the honor include Vince (Tony Rock), which stokes the sense of competition that Father Gene and Rabbi Gil (Ian Gomez, David Krumholtz) advise Chip to stifle. Lindsey Kraft and Camryn Manheim also star. Another episode follows.

BABY DRIVER 9:05 p.m. on SHOW

One of the biggest sleeper hits of 2017, Edgar Wright's action drama about a young music lover (Ansel Elgort) forced to work as a getaway driver for a crime kingpin (Kevin Spacey) boasts dazzling visuals, a killer soundtrack and a terrific gallery of performances from an eclectic cast that also includes Lily James, Jon Hamm, Jamie Foxx and Jon Bernthal. Filmed on a budget of $34 million, the movie emerged as a blockbuster, pulling in more than $225 million worldwide.

ROBIN WILLIAMS: COME INSIDE MY MIND

7 p.m., 1:05 a.m. on HBO

Filmmaker Marina Zenovich examines the life, career and creative process of beloved comic and Oscar-winning actor Robin Williams in this poignant new documentary, much of it told via interviews with Williams himself. Along with onstage performance footage and clips from home movies, this film also includes extended commentary from friends and co-stars including Billy Crystal, Pam Dawber, Whoopi Goldberg, Steve Martin, Eric Idle, David Letterman and the late performer's son, Zak Williams.

WHOSE LINE IS IT ANYWAY?

8 p.m. on KDAF

His former partner Jordan Peele has been doing other things lately — like winning an Oscar — but Keegan-Michael Key remains focused on comedy, as he demonstrates as the guest in this new episode. He joins regular panelists Wayne Brady, Colin Mochrie and Ryan Stiles to generate improvised humor from the studio audience's suggestions. Aisha Tyler is the host. Another episode follows.

POSE

8 p.m., 9:03 p.m., 11:20 p.m. on FX

In a new episode called "Pink Slip," Blanca (MJ Rodriguez) drops a huge bombshell about Lil Papi (Angel Bismark Curiel) that promises to change the House of Evangelista forever. Meanwhile, Elektra (Dominique Jackson) is forced to rethink her strategy for survival after the members of the House of Abundance are evicted from their apartment.

PREACHER 9 p.m., 10:01 p.m., 2:07 a.m., 3:08 a.m. on AMC

Attempting to fulfill his debt to Gran'ma (Betty Buckley), Jesse (Dominic Cooper) tries to breathe life back into the dusty, dying town of Angelville. In the process, though, he also inadvertently begins to test Tulip and Cassidy's (Ruth Negga, Joseph Gilgun) faith in him yet again as the sinister community begins to work its malignant spell over him, drawing out a much darker side to his personality in the new episode "The Tombs." Colin Cunningham also stars.

SUCCESSION 9 p.m., 11 p.m., 1:30 a.m. on HBO

Sensing that he needs to polish his public image, Logan (Brian Cox) agrees to participate in a family therapy session at Connor's (Alan Ruck) ranch in New Mexico, but Kendall (Jeremy Strong) is just lying low and trying to stay sober in the aftermath of so much corporate drama. Nate (Ashley Zuckerman) urges Shiv (Sarah Snook) to join the political team of Gil Evans (Eric Bogosian), an aspiring presidential candidate whose values are the polar opposite of Logan's in the new "Austerlitz." Justine Lupe also stars.

Lipinski brings viewers along for the ride on 'Wedding Cake Championship'

Tara Lipinski admits there was somewhat of a learning curve for her in hosting "Wedding Cake Championship" with figure skating compadre Johnny Weir, but the 1998 Olympic gold medalist adds that that actually made for better television as they took the ride along with the viewers.

"Johnny and I don't know that much about baking," she says, "and as we got to know these bakers, for them to teach us and help us learn in a way that maybe some viewers that are watching who are like Johnny and I and love cakes, love watching competition shows but don't know all the ins and outs and terminology, it was really fun along the way to be able to portray that to whoever's watching."

In the four-episode series, which has its finale Monday, July 16, on Food Network, six teams of elite wedding cake makers squared off to be one of the three to make it to the final round, in which they are tasked with making the most over-the-top cake for Lipinski and husband Todd Kapostasy for their first anniversary. The winning team bags a $25,000 grand prize and the title "Wedding Cake Champion."

Lipinski says she was happy with her own wedding cake a year ago but adds she couldn't help but come away from the competition with a few ideas for future occasions.

What book are you currently reading?

"I started it last night, "The Pursuit of Happiness" by Douglas Kennedy."

What did you have for dinner last night?

"Last night I had Shake Shack (laughs), which is a guilty pleasure of mine. A chicken sandwich and a chocolate milkshake. I know, not the healthiest."

What is your next project?

"My next project is I'm working on – it just got announced yesterday – Jim Carrey has a new show coming on Showtime called 'Kidding' and I have an arc on the first season. So I've already been in. It's been an incredible experience. It's been really fun and so that's sort of the next project."

When was your last vacation, where and why?

"Probably my last real vacation was my honeymoon and we traveled the world for 40 days, which was incredible. And we're actually leaving tomorrow for our anniversary trip and we're going to Greece and France."
