GOTHAM 7 p.m. on KDFW

The fourth season begins with "Pax Penguina," as Penguin's (Robin Lord Taylor) new blueprint for overseeing crime in the city hits some snags, marring the unveiling of his Iceberg Lounge. The clues left by several robberies suggest that Jonathan Crane (guest star Charlie Tahan) has returned, to Gordon's (Ben McKenzie) great concern. Bruce Wayne (David Mazouz) takes a major step forward in his determination to fight evil. Donal Logue and Morena Baccarin also star. (Season Premiere) (N) HD CC (DVS)

THE VIETNAM WAR

7 p.m., 9 p.m. on KERA

The first week's episodes of the new Ken Burns-Lynn Novick documentary series conclude with the fifth chapter, "This Is What We Do (July 1967-December 1967)," as casualties rise on both the American and Vietnamese sides. At home, President Lyndon B. Johnson tries to assure Americans that their military has the upper hand in the conflict — but the facts suggest otherwise, via the statistics coming back from the central highlands and south of the DMZ. Lori McKenna becomes the first woman to receive the ceremony's songwriter of the year award. Performers also include Vince Gill, Toby Keith, Little Big Town, Maren Morris, Brad Paisley, Alan Jackson and Thomas Rhett. (N) HD CC

KINDRED SPIRITS

8 p.m., 10 p.m. on TLC

If the haunting season of Halloween is on the horizon, it must be time for a new season of this entertaining paranormal show, hosted by the delightful Amy Bruni and Adam Berry. The season premiere, "The Legend of Lizzie Borden," finds the investigators and BFFs at the Massachusetts family home of the notorious ax murderess. Their goal, however, is to help a tour guide who thinks her grandparents are in the house, trying to protect her from impending doom. (Season Premiere) (N)

ROOM 104 10:30 p.m., 10 p.m. on TLC

In "Phoenix," a new episode set in 1969, Joan (Amy Landecker, "Transparent"), the sole survivor of a plane crash, sits in the titular motel room trying to decide whether she should go back to the existence she had before the disaster or seize this unexpected opportunity to make a fresh start with her life. Mae Whitman ("Arrested Development") also stars. (N) CC

BIG BROTHER 7 p.m. on KTVT

What is spending a summer in a house full of strangers worth? Well, to someone, $500,000 — as will be proven again in this two-hour finale of the extremely unscripted show's 19th season, which awards that prize to the housemate who has played the game well enough to avoid being booted out along the way. Host Julie Chen declares the winner, then interviews that person about all the circumstances and strategies that have led to that result. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC

THE GOOD PLACE 9:01 p.m. on KXAS

One of last year's critically best-received new series, this afterlife comedy returns for Season 2 — and it's been some time since the preceding episode, so expect a refresher to start this hour, ironically titled "Everything Is Great!". For now, let us help: Michael (Ted Danson) is not quite the benevolent soul he seemed to be through much of the show's freshman season, with a major hand in putting Eleanor (Kristen Bell) and others in a bad place ... literally. (Season Premiere) (N) HD CC (DVS)

THE VIETNAM WAR

7 p.m., 9 p.m. on KERA

"The River Stvx (January 1964-December 1965)," Part 3 of the new Ken Burns-Lynn Novick documentary series, finds Hanoi stepping up the conflict by sending troops to a South Vietnam already in disarray. With the collapse of Saigon a distinct possibility, President Lvndon Johnson increases America's role in the conflict, ordering attacks on the northern half of Vietnam and sending ground troops to the southern half. Plentiful news footage is included. (N) HD CC

SOMEWHERE BETWEEN

9 p.m. on WFAA

After risking their own lives in trying to ensure Serena's (Aria Birch) safety against a fate that seems preordained, Laura and Nico (Paula Patton, Devon Sawa) reach the apparent end of their quest in the drama's season finale. "One Must Die." That title certainly doesn't seem to bode a favorable outcome but since this show has made its own rules from the start it appears reasonable to say that anything could happen. JR Bourne also stars. (Season Finale) (N) HD CC (DVS)

CONAN

9 p.m. on TBS

12

Late-night host Conan O'Brien takes his talk show to an international location for the seventh time in two years in tonight's new episode, which finds him traveling to Israel, for an itinerary that includes Tel Aviv. Jerusalem and other locales in that country. Past destinations have included Mexico City, Qatar, Cuba, Armenia and South Korea. (N) CC

69TH PRIMETIME EMMY AWARDS 7 p.m. on KTVT

Demonstrating just how present both broadcast and cable offerings (not to mention streaming shows) are in this year's event, "Saturday Night Live" and "Westworld" are tied with the most nominations - 22 each - in television's celebration of its own excellence at Los Angeles' Microsoft Theater. Stephen Colbert, whose own "Late Show" also is in the running, serves as host. Expect many familiar faces from various series to appear as presenters. (N) HD (Live) CC

THE VIETNAM WAR 7 p.m., 8:30 p.m. on KERA

What easily is one of the year's biggest television events - occupying the better part of two weeks — begins, as Ken Burns and Lynn Novick's newest documentary series examines the title conflict by including testimonials from those on both the American and Vietnamese sides, plus a heavy dose of the music that marked the era. The premiere, "Deja Vu (1858-1961)," recalls the century of history that led up to the start of the battle at the peak of the Cold War. (Series Premiere) (N) HD CC

THE DEUCE

8 p.m., 10:30 p.m., 12:30 a.m. on HBO

His options dwindling as his marriage implodes, Vincent (James Franco) is forced to move into a seedy hotel, but success drawing customer caricatures at a bar lands him a job offer from mob chief Rudy Pipilo (Michael Rispoli) in the new "Show and Prove." While warily filling in for a friend in a porn short, Candy (Maggie Gyllenhaal) finds the filmmaking process very intriguing. Chris Bauer, Gary Carr, Emily Meade and Lawrence Gilliard Jr. also star. The wine is the thing for Candace Cameron and Valeri Bure

Candace Cameron Bure, DJ Tanner-Fuller on Netflix's "Fuller House" (which returns for its third season Friday, Sept. 22), is a woman of many talents: actress, talkshow host, producer, author, "Dancing With the Stars" competitor.

But what you might not know is that she's also very into wine and with her husband, former NHL star Valeri Bure, co-owns the Napa Valley-based Bure Family Wines.

"We've always loved food and wine, especially Val; we're definitely foodies," Cameron Bure explains. "So Val knew that when his hockey career would eventually wind down, he wanted something else to do. So he got involved in winemaking. We had taken some trips to Napa and then he just started really learning the craft probably five years before he retired, and started setting up things so that he could go into that business once he did retire."

"We farm everything, tend everything," she continues. "And we're a very small boutique winery. Our production is very small but very high end."

Indeed, a look at the company's website, www. burefamilywines.com, reveals a mix of cabernet sauvignons (one of which is an estate wine), a chardonnay and a sauvignon blanc, with small releases and no prices listed, though other online retailers price them at upward of $100 a bottle.

Cameron Bure says her husband learned the business literally from the ground up, from growing and harvesting the grapes, to mixing the wine and marketing and selling it. He's especially interested in the mixing and in that he takes a very active role.

"We have ... a wonderful winemaker, Luc Morlet," Cameron Bure says. "But Val sits with him and does all the blending with him and ultimately Val chooses and blends for what he likes and his palate and obviously trusts Luc a lot. But a lot of times Val will just say, 'It's not what I want. Nope, it's not what I want.' And they continue to blend and blend together until Val is happy with that."

And another two books next year will be released as well. So I've got a lot going on."
