GREY'S ANATOMY 7 p.m. on WFAA

Series mentor Shonda Rhimes is moving to Netflix to develop new programming, but she's still steering the ship for this medical-drama staple — as proven by a two-hour opener for its 14th season that combines two episodes, "Break Down the House" and "Get Off on the Pain." The saga picks up where last spring's literally explosive finale left off as Abigail Spencer ("Timeless") joins the cast. Ellen Pompeo and Kevin McKidd (who directed the second hour) also star. (Season Premiere) (N) HD CC

WILL & GRACE 8 p.m. on KXAS

The popularity of an online cast reunion inspired this new revival of the sitcom, debuting with Eric McCormack and Debra Messing reprising the title roles, and Sean Hayes and Megan Mullally as their colorful comrades Jack and Karen again. Much of the behind-thescenes team also returns in the aptly titled "11 Years Later," including executive producers Max Mutchnick and David Kohan, plus James Burrows (who directed every episode of the original show). #### HAWAII FIVE-0 8 p.m. on KTVT

The squad's investigation of a sex-trafficking ring reaches the point of no return in "Ua mau ke ea o ka 'aina i ka pono" (Hawaiian for "The Life of the Land Is Perpetuated in Righteousness"). McGarrett (Alex O'Loughlin) ends up in direct peril as he and his colleagues try to save young women from the felons. The case has enough of an impact on Kono (Grace Park) for her to decide something surprising. Scott Caan, Daniel Dae Kim and Chi McBride also star. HD CC

BLUE BLOODS 9 p.m. on KTVT

"The Thin Blue Line" places Danny (Donnie Wahlberg) — and potentially his loved ones — in peril after he prevents a very big stash of cash from reaching a Mexican drug cartel, whose members then seek revenge. Jamie (Will Estes) goes rogue to find a serial killer who's targeting senior citizens. Mayor Poole (recurring guest star David Ramsey, "Arrow") shares big news with Frank (Tom Selleck). Tamara Tunie also guest stars. Bridget Moynahan also stars. ID CC (DVS)

MIKE JUDGE PRESENTS: TALES FROM THE TOUR BUS

9 p.m., 9:30 p.m., 11:50 p.m. on CINE

Renaissance man Mike Judge ("Silicon Valley") returns to his roots as a musician in this new weekly animated series, which he co-created and narrates. Each episode of the show features tales of some of country music's most colorful and eccentric artists, starting with a series premiere devoted to Johnny Paycheck. This bestselling artist took the title "country music outlaw" literally, and was known for his car theft, drug abuse and jail stints as much as his songs. (Series Premiere) (N) CC

EMPIRE 7 p.m. on KDFW

The Lee Daniels-produced music-industry drama launches its fourth season with "Noble Memory," a crossover story that concludes immediately afterward on "Star." That show's Queen Latifah appears here, as her Carlotta has a showdown with Lucious and Cookie (Terrence Howard, Taraji P. Henson). Cookie also has other concerns, including Lucious' nurse, Claudia - played by guest star Demi Moore, in the role she began in the final moments of last season's finale. (Season Premiere) (N) HD CC (DVS)

SEAL TEAM 8 p.m. on KTVT

On the heels of a dozen years on "Bones," it's not taking long for David Boreanaz to report for series duty again. His new character is, of course, a member of the elite brigade of Navy officers sent on dangerous missions whenever necessary ... typically without much, if any, prep time. Other cast members in the premiere, 'Tip of the Spear, include Jessica Pare (alias Megan on "Mad Men"), Max Thieriot and ex-"CSI' NY" regular A.J. Buckley. (Series Premiere) (N) HD CC

THE VIETNAM WAR 7 p.m., 9 p.m. on KERA

An overseas massacre staged by American soldiers contributes to President Nixon's decision to pull U.S. troops out of Vietnam in "The History of the World (April 1969-May 1970)," the eighth chapter of Ken Burns and Lynn Novick's new miniseries. As the population at home debates continued presence by their country in the conflict, the antiwar movement is stoked by military action taken in Cambodia — with a resulting tragedy at Ohio's Kent State University. (N)

THIS IS US 8 p.m. on KXAS

One of television's most discussed, most watched dramas begins its second season with "A Father's Advice." The 37th birthday of "The Big Three" marks turning points for that trio of siblings: Randall (Sterling K. Brown) mulls making a major change along with Beth (Susan Kelechi Watson), Kate (Chrissy Metz) embarks on a new path, and Kevin (Justin Hartley) faces a work vs. personal life choice. Milo Ventimiglia and Mandy Moore also star. (Season Premiere) (N)

LAW & ORDER TRUE CRIME: THE MENENDEZ MURDERS 9:01 p.m. on KXAS

One of television's longest-running franchises gets a new wrinkle, as executive producer Dick Wolf opts for a true story rather than fictionalizing headlines. Not unlike "The People v. O.J. Simpson: American Crime Story," this drama involves figures familiar to anyone who followed the case of two brothers (played by Gus Halper and Miles Gaston Villanueva) accused of killing their parents. Edie Falco returns to series TV as defense attorney Leslie Abramson. (Series Premiere) (N) ID © (DVS)

tonight's PICKS

NCIS: NEW ORLEANS 7 p.m. on KTVT

A would-be Navy SEAL is slain shortly before he's scheduled to graduate, prompting Pride (Scott Bakula) and the team to probe the training method the victim underwent, in "One Good Man." The case makes the timing by Danny (guest star Christopher Meyer), Wade's (CCH Pounder) adopted son, to declare he's joining the Navy inopportune for her. Steven Weber reprises his recurring role as Mayor Hamilton. Lucas Black and Vanessa Ferlito also star.

THE DISAPPEARANCE OF MAURA MURRAY 7:30 p.m., 10 p.m., 12:30

a.m. on OXY

This new six-part series reopens one of the most prominent cold cases of the social-media age as journalist Maggie Freleng tries to untangle a Gordian knot of false leads, eyewitness discrepancies and other problems. On Feb. 9, 2004, witnesses told police they heard what sounded like a carcrash and saw nursing student Maura Murray standing on the side of the road near her vehicle. When officers arrived on the scene, however, she had vanished. (Series Premiere) (N)

HALT AND CATCH FIRE 8 p.m., 9:08 p.m., 12:46 a.m.

In the new episode "A Connection Is Made," Donna (Kerry Bishe) makes a play to land a seriously heavy hitter, while her ex, Gordon (Scoot McNairy), has a talk with one of their daughters about an issue at school. Joe (Lee Pace), meanwhile, sees a new side of Haley (Susanna Skaggs), and Cameron (Mackenzie Davis) discovers she has a new fan. (N) ©

THE BIG BANG THEORY

7 p.m. on KTVT

Are Amy and Sheldon (Mayim Bialik, Jim Parsons) headed for the altar? She lets him know in the comedy's 11th-season premiere, "The Proposal Proposal." His mother Mary may have something to say about it — and she's played again here by Laurie Metcalf, whose daughter Zoe Perry portrays a younger Mary in the "Young Sheldon" debut that follows immediately. Stephen Hawking appears as himself again, and guest star Riki Lindhome also returns. (Season Premiere) (N)

YOUNG SHELDON 7:30 p.m. on KTVT

It's never certain that a beloved character from an ensemble comedy can carry his (or her) own show, but "The Big Bang Theory's" Sheldon is so well-defined, it would take some doing for him to fail as the center of a series — even in his younger years. In this new spinoff's "Pilot," lain Armitage emulates Jim Parsons (who's the narrator here) as Sheldon Cooper's famously advanced mind perplexes nearly everyone. The show starts its regular run in November. (Series Premiere) (N) HD CC (DVS)

THE VIETNAM WAR 7 p.m., 8:30 p.m. on KERA

The second week of the new miniseries by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick begins with the sixth installment, "Things Fall Apart (January 1968-July 1968)." One of those "things" is President Lyndon Johnson's promise of a positive outcome for the American involvement in the war, with the Tet Offensive prompting famous criticism from news legend Walter Cronkite that goes a long way toward Johnson's decision about his political future. Other events also unsettle the U.S. (N) HD CC

Anna Chlumsky recalls her brush with restaurant reviewing want to do for a career. Ideally, you'd go into the field of your education, but maybe that's no longer appealing or realistic.

What's a recent grad to do?

If you're like Anna Chlumsky, who was just out of the University of Chicago in the early 2000s with a B.A. in International Studies, your thoughts turn to your talents and your interests. And ideas start to come, some better than

"You're like, 'Well, I can write and I like traveling and I like eating ...," recalls the 36-year-old actress, who is currently in the midst of a five-episode guest-starring arc on the Saturday AMC drama "Halt and Catch Fire." "So I found a posting at

Zagat, the print guide and website that has been publishing restaurant reviews and ratings in more than 70 cities since 1979, felt like a natural fit to the former child star of the 1991 theatrical hit "My Girl," who, like her friends, was a foodie

You're just out of college and you have no idea of what you before the term became popular. So she accepted a position as a fact checker with the ultimate goal of becoming a food

But there was one problem.

"(I realized) once I was there, they're a polling site," the Chicago native says. "Really, the happiest people at Zagat were the mathematicians, because it was a survey. It's a survey, so the same type of folks who would be happy at Gallup or Nielsen or something are also happy there because it's a lot of

"And if you opened up a Zagat guide," she continues, "you realized that all the blurbs are in quotes and that's because they actually don't write them; they only grab what the surveyors have written and then they turn those into the reviews. ..."

"We knew we were never going to get close to writing a review," she adds with a laugh, "unless you filled out a survey." And while she never did get to write for Zagat, she did have several articles published online, including one about Ovaltine. But she ultimately found acting to be more satisfying, and thus went back to her original career.

As for her current role on "Halt," Chlumsky stars as Dr. Katie Herman, chief ontologist who plays a crucial role in the Search business venture in the series' final

Not being technologically inclined, the actress had to look up what an ontologist is ("They're categorists. They're really good at drawing relationships between all things."). But she immediately dialed into the character and her ability for independent thought.

We blend the best of traditional Christian education with the best of home education into one unique model.
