rec·on·cil·i·a·tion

/rekənˌsilēˈāSH(ə)n /
noun

1. The restoration of relationship.
2. The process of two people or groups in a conflict agreeing to make amends or come to a truce

2 Corinthians 5:17-19

All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and
gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

2 Corinthians 5:17-19

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and intrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:17-19

All this is from God, who
through Christ reconciled us to himself and
gave us the ministry of reconciliation:
