

THE JOURNEY TO ICAGILE CERTIFIED EXPERT IN AGILE COACHING (ICE-AC)

This transformative experience guides you on a journey to build genuine, demonstrable competence in agile team coaching.

The ICE-AC distinguishes professionals who can facilitate, coach, mentor and teach at a level that unlocks the potential of agile teams.

1 EARN THE PREREQUISITE CERTIFICATIONS

Begin your Agile Team Coaching journey by earning the Agile Team Facilitation (ICP-ATF) and Agile Coaching (ICP-ACC) designations.

2 APPLY TO AN ACCREDITED EXPERT PROGRAM

View upcoming programs offered by ICAgile Member Organizations.

Active practitioners will be best set up for success to complete program requirements toward the ICE-AC.

3 ENGAGE

Participate in the program and learn from the experiences of your Program Leaders as well as fellow cohort members.

4 SUBMIT THE EVIDENCE

Within 6 months of program completion, provide the following evidence demonstrating the agile team coaching competencies:

- 100-hour practice log
- Evidence demonstrating professional coaching, facilitating, mentoring, teaching and team coaching.

Your Program Leaders will provide more information and guidance regarding evidence requirements.

5 FINAL ASSESSMENT WITH ICAGILE

Once your Program Leaders have approved your evidence submission, attend a 1-hour Final Assessment with ICAgile to share your learnings.

CELEBRATE! WHAT'S NEXT?

Join the ICAgile Expert Community and go forth to create change in your organization and in the world.

ICAgile does not charge renewal fees to maintain your ICE-AC credential. Instead, we ask that you continue to contribute to the agile community at large.
